To Our Shareholders:

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend a Special Meeting of Stockholders (the "Special Meeting") of Red Cat Holdings, Inc. ("Red Cat" or the "Company"). The Special Meeting will be held on March 8, 2023 as an audio-only conference call. You can attend the Special Meeting by calling 877-407-3088 (Toll Free). We have adopted a virtual format for our Special Meeting to protect the health and well-being of our employees, directors, stockholders and other stakeholders in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Additionally, we believe that a virtual meeting allows us to make participation accessible for stockholders from any geographic location with telephonic connectivity. The Special Meeting will begin at approximately 12 p.m., Eastern Time.

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to approve the sale of Rotor Riot, LLC ("Rotor Riot") and Fat Shark Holdings, Ltd ("Fat Shark"), each a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, to Unusual Machines Inc. ("Unusual"), pursuant to a Share Purchase Agreement dated as of November 21, 2022 (the "Share Purchase Agreement"). The Company has agreed to sell, and Unusual has agreed to purchase, Rotor Riot and Fat Shark for $18 million in cash, notes and stock as follows: (i) $5.0 million in cash, (ii) a $2.5 million 8% Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note that will mature on the 3 year anniversary date of the closing of the transaction, plus (iii) $10.5 million in Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. Jeffrey Thompson, our founder and Chief Executive Officer is also a founder of Unusual and a stockholder in both companies. Mr. Thompson will abstain from voting on the proposed transactions. The Company's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the Share Purchase Agreement and recommends shareholders vote in favor of the transaction.

A majority of the votes cast in favor of the transaction will be required to approve Proposal One, the Share Purchase Agreement, excluding any votes held by Jeffrey Thompson, our Chief Executive Officer, who is a significant shareholder of both the Company and Unusual. As of January 27, 2023, the record date for the meeting, there were 55,131,784 shares eligible to vote, including 54,309,554 shares of common stock outstanding and 822,230 votes held by holders of Series B Preferred Stock eligible to vote on an as-converted basis. A majority of the votes cast in favor of the transaction will be required to approve the Share Purchase Agreement, excluding any votes held by Jeffrey Thompson, our Chief Executive Officer, who is also a significant stockholder of both the Company and Unusual. As of the January 27, 2023 record date, Mr. Thompson owned 12,304,877 shares of our common stock based on his Form 4 filings with the SEC and other related information available to us, representing approximately 22% of votes eligible to be cast at the meeting. After excluding Mr. Thompson's shares, Proposal One will require the affirmative vote of 50.1%, or 21,413,882 of the disinterested shares. Based on their Form 4 filings and other information available to us, our officers and directors are expected to vote approximately 2,283,000 shares "FOR" Proposal One.

On November 21, 2022, our Board of Directors (i) determined that it was advisable and in the best interests of Red Cat and its stockholders to enter into the Share Purchase Agreement and (ii) approved the Share Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

We are soliciting proxies for use at the Special Meeting to consider and vote upon proposals to (i) approve the sale of Rotor Riot and Fat Shark on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Share Purchase Agreement (as it may be amended from time to time and including all exhibits and schedules thereto), and (ii) adjourn the Special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes in favor of the proposed transactions. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" each of the foregoing proposals.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the audio-only Special Meeting, to ensure that your shares will be represented, please cast your vote as soon as possible via the internet, or, if you received a paper proxy card and voting instructions by mail, by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-prepaid envelope. Your vote by proxy will ensure your representation at the Special Meeting regardless of whether or not you attend virtually.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe Freedman

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE MEETING

What is the purpose of the Special Meeting?

The purpose is to have stockholders vote upon the proposals described in this Proxy Statement.

What proposals are scheduled to be voted on at the Special Meeting?

Stockholders will be asked to vote upon the following two proposals:

1. Approve the sale by the Company of Rotor Riot, LLC ("Rotor Riot") and Fat Shark Holdings, Ltd. ("Fat Shark" and together with Rotor Riot, the "Target Companies), each a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, to Unusual Machines, Inc. ("Unusual"). The sale is pursuant to a Share Purchase Agreement dated November 21, 2022, by and between (i) the Company, as seller, (ii) Unusual, as purchaser, and (iii) Jeffrey Thompson, the principal stockholder of the Company ("Principal Stockholder") who is also a significant stockholder of Unusual. The total purchase price of $18 million consists of (i) $5.0 million in cash, subject to adjustment based on the working capital balances of the Target Companies on the closing date, (ii) $2.5 million in the form of an 8% Senior Secured Promissory Note that will mature on the 3 year anniversary date of the closing of the transaction convertible into common stock of Unusual (the "Unusual Note"), and (iii) $10.5 million shares of Series A, Convertible Preferred Stock convertible into shares of common stock of Unusual (the "Unusual Preferred Stock").

2. To approve an adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the proposal to approve the Share Purchase Agreement (The "Adjournment Proposal").

What is the recommendation of our Board of Directors on each of the proposals scheduled to be voted upon at the Special Meeting?

Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote your shares:

- FOR the approval of the Share Purchase Agreement as set forth in the proxy statement (Proposal One); and
- FOR the Adjournment Proposal (Proposal Two).

Why are we having a virtual only meeting?

We have adopted a virtual format for our Special Meeting to protect the health and well-being of our employees, directors, stockholders and other stakeholders in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Additionally, we believe that a virtual meeting allows us to make participation accessible for stockholders from any geographic location with telephonic connectivity.

We will have technicians ready to assist you with any technical difficulties you may have in accessing the virtual Special Meeting. If you encounter any difficulties, please call: 877-804-2062 (Toll Free) or email proxy@equitystock.com.

A replay of the Special Meeting will be posted as soon as practical on www.redcat.vote.

Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

As of January 27, 2023, the Record Date, there were 55,131,784 shares eligible to vote, including 54,309,554 shares of common stock outstanding and 822,230 votes held by holders of Series B Preferred Stock eligible to vote on an as-converted basis. Each share is entitled to one vote on each matter and there is no cumulative voting.

How do I vote my shares?

Whether you plan to attend the virtual Special Meeting or not, we urge you to vote by proxy. All shares represented by valid proxies that we receive through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card or as instructed via Internet or telephone. Except as set forth below, if you properly submit a proxy without giving specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the Board of Director’s recommendations. Voting by proxy will not affect your right to attend the Special Meeting.

If your shares are registered directly in your name through our stock transfer agent, Equity Stock Transfer, or you have stock certificates, you may vote:

3. By Internet. The website address for Internet voting is www.redcat.vote. Please click “Vote Your Proxy” and enter your control number.
4. By mail. Mark, date, sign and mail promptly the Proxy Card, ATTN: Shareholder Services.
5. At the Special Meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you can participate and vote your shares at the Special Meeting by visiting www.redcat.vote and then clicking “Vote Your Proxy”. You may then enter the control number included on your Proxy Card and view the proposals and cast your vote.

If your shares are held in “street name,” your bank, broker or other nominee should provide to you a request for voting instructions along with the Company’s proxy solicitation materials. By completing the voting instruction card, you may direct your nominee how to vote your shares. If you partially complete the voting instruction but fail to complete one or more of the voting instructions, then your nominee may be unable to vote your shares with respect to the proposal as to which you provided no voting instructions. Alternatively, if you want to vote your shares during the Special Meeting, you must contact your nominee directly in order to obtain a proxy issued to you by your nominee holder. Note that a broker letter that identifies you as a stockholder is not the same as a nominee-issued proxy. If you fail to present a nominee-issued proxy to proxy@equitystock.com by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 6, 2023, you will not be able to vote your nominee- held shares during the Special Meeting.

Can I change my vote or revoke my proxy?

A stockholder of record who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised at the Special Meeting by:

- Delivering to our Corporate Secretary a written notice stating that the proxy is revoked;
- Signing and delivering a proxy bearing a later date;
- Voting again via internet no later than 7:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 7, 2023; or
- Voting again during the Special Meeting when the Chairman opens the polls.

Please note, however, that if your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to revoke a proxy, you must contact that firm to revoke any prior voting instructions.

Will I be able to ask questions at the Special Meeting?

Shareholders may submit live questions on the conference line while attending the virtual Special Meeting. Only questions pertinent to meeting matters or our Company will be answered during the meeting, subject to time constraints. Questions that are substantially similar may be grouped and answered together to avoid repetition.

What is the quorum requirement for the Special Meeting?

The holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting as of the Record Date must be present at the Special Meeting in order to hold the Special Meeting and conduct business. This presence is called a quorum. Your shares are counted as present at the Special Meeting if you are present and vote in person at the Special Meeting, if you vote in advance of the Special Meeting by mail or internet or by telephone or if you have properly submitted a proxy. Shares held by Mr. Thompson will be counted as present at the Special Meeting for purposes of a quorum.

What is the vote required for each proposal?

For Proposal One, approval of the Share Purchase Agreement proposal will be obtained if the number of votes cast “FOR” the proposal at the Special Meeting by holders of disinterested shares of the Company Common Stock represents a majority of votes cast by holders of disinterested shares cast by stockholders.

For Proposal Two, approval of the Adjournment Proposal will be obtained if the number of votes cast “FOR” the proposal at the Special Meeting represents a majority of the votes cast by stockholders.

How are abstentions and broker non-votes treated?

Abstentions (i.e. shares present at the Special Meeting and marked “abstain”) and “broker non-votes” are each included in the determination of the number of shares present and entitled to vote at the meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting; however, neither abstentions nor broker non-votes are counted as voted either for or against a proposal and, as such, will not affect the outcome of the vote on any proposal.

A “broker non-vote” occurs when your broker submits a proxy for your shares but does not indicate a vote for a particular proposal because the broker has not received voting instructions from you and is not authorized to vote on that proposal without instructions. A broker is authorized to vote shares held for a beneficial owner on “routine” matters without instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares, but is not authorized to vote shares held for a beneficial owner on “non-routine” matters without instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares.

Proposal One is considered a “non-routine” matter. If you do not provide your broker with specific instructions on how to vote your shares, the broker that holds your shares will not be authorized to vote on Proposal One. Accordingly, we encourage you to provide voting instructions to your broker, whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

If you receive more than one proxy card, your shares are registered in more than one name or are registered in different accounts. To make certain all of your shares are voted, please follow the instructions included on each proxy card and vote each proxy card via the internet or by mail. If you requested or received paper proxy materials and you intend to vote by mail, please complete, sign and return each proxy card you received to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Who is paying for this proxy solicitation?

We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the proxy card and any other information furnished to stockholders. Following the original mailing of the proxy materials, we and our agents, including directors, officers and other employees, without additional compensation, may solicit proxies by mail, email, telephone, facsimile, by other similar means or in person. Following the original mailing of the proxy materials, we will request brokers, custodians, nominees and other record holders to forward copies of the proxy materials to persons for whom they hold shares and to request authority for the exercise of proxies. In such cases, upon the request of the record holders, we will reimburse such holders for their reasonable expenses. If you choose to access the proxy materials or vote via the internet, you are responsible for any internet access charges you may incur.

Where can I find the voting results?

Voting results will be tabulated and certified by the inspector of elections appointed for the Special Meeting. The preliminary voting results will be announced at the Special Meeting. The final results will be tallied by the inspector of elections and filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in a current report on Form 8-K within four business days of the Special Meeting.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Proxy Statement and other documents referred to herein contain, or may contain, forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties relating to the Share Purchase Agreement. Any statements that are not historical fact are forward-looking statements. When used in this proxy statement, the words “believe,” “plan,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “target,” “estimate,” “expect,” and the like, and/or future-tense or conditional constructions (“will,” “may,” “could,” “should,” etc.), or similar expressions, identify certain of these forward-looking statements and relate to a variety of matters, including but not limited to (i) the timing and anticipated completion of the Share Purchase Agreement; (ii) the benefits expected to result from the proposed Share Purchase Agreement; (iii) the tax consequences of the Share Purchase Agreement; and (iv) other statements that are not purely statements of historical fact. These forward-looking statements are made on the basis of current beliefs, expectations and assumptions of our management, are not guarantees of performance and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties.

For information about other potential factors that could affect the Company’s business and financial results, investors should also review the risk factors in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on July 27, 2022 as amended August 15, 2022 and the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on December 15, 2022 as well as its Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC.

All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made. The Company does not undertake any obligation to update such forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that exist after the date of this Proxy Statement except as required by federal securities law.

Risks Related to the Matters Under Consideration.

The announcement and pendency of the matters considered under Proposal One, whether or not completed, may adversely affect the trading price of our common stock.

The announcement and pendency of the transactions set forth for approval may adversely affect the trading price of our common stock, our business or our relationships with clients, customers, suppliers and employees. Third parties may be unwilling to enter into material agreements with the Company and/or the Target Companies. New or existing customers, suppliers and business partners may prefer to enter into agreements with our competitors who have not expressed an intention to sell their business because customers, suppliers and business partners may perceive that such new relationships are likely to be more stable. Additionally, employees working in the Company and/or the Target Companies, as applicable, may lose focus or seek other employment. In addition, while the completion of the transactions are pending, we may be unable to attract and retain key personnel and our management’s focus and attention and employee resources may be diverted from operational matters.

Completion of matters considered under Proposal One are dependent on the funding of Unusual which is uncertain but required to close the Share Purchase Agreement.

Completion of the transactions set forth for approval are not certain and depend upon the closing of the initial public offering (IPO) of common stock by Unusual and the listing of its shares for trading on The NASDAQ Capital Market. Unusual has filed a Registration Statement on Form S-1 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) for registration of its initial public offering under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “1933 Act”), which has not been declared effective by the SEC as of the date of this Proxy Statement. Even if approved by our stockholders, the closing of the Share Purchase Agreement and sale of the Target Companies may not occur if Unusual is unable to register its common stock for sale with the SEC or its initial public offering cannot be completed or is delayed. Currently, Unusual does not have the cash or resources to complete the transactions, even if approved by our stockholders, without completion of the IPO and does not have the financial resources to satisfy its obligations under the Senior Note. Following closing, we will become a significant stockholder and noteholder of Unusual. As such, the ability of Unusual to raise additional capital and be successful will become a risk to us.

The matters considered under Proposal One will require significant management resources.

The implementation of the Share Purchase Agreement will require significant time, attention, and resources of our senior management, potentially diverting their attention from the conduct of the Company's business.

If we fail to complete the transactions contemplated in Proposal One, our business and financial performance may be adversely affected.

The completion of the transaction contemplated in Proposal One is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions, including the approval by a majority of our disinterested stockholders and the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to the Target Companies' business, which may not be satisfied in a timely manner or at all.

If not completed, we may have difficulty recouping the costs incurred in connection with negotiating the transaction, preparing the Share Purchase Agreement and this proxy statement. Our directors, executive officers and other employees will have expended extensive time and effort and will have experienced significant distractions from their work during the pendency of the transactions, and we will have incurred significant third-party transaction costs, in each case, without any commensurate benefit, which may have a material and adverse effect on our stock price and results of operations.

In addition, if not completed, the Board of Directors, in discharging its fiduciary obligations to our stockholders, may evaluate other strategic options including, but not limited to, continuing to operate the Target Companies for the foreseeable future or an alternative sale transaction relating to the Target Companies. An alternative sale transaction, if available, may yield lower consideration than the proposed transaction, be on less favorable terms and conditions than those contained in the Share Purchase Agreement and involve significant delay. Any future sale or other transactions may be subject to further stockholder approval.

Finally, if not completed, the announcement of the termination of the Share Purchase Agreement may adversely affect our relationships with customers, suppliers and employees, which could have a material adverse effect on our ability to effectively operate the Target Companies, including as a result of our determination to focus our energies on our enterprise and government segments. In the event that we determine that a superior offer is available and we proceed with that alternative, we may be required to pay a termination fee of $500,000 to Unusual under certain circumstances, each of which could have further adverse effects on our business, results of operations and the trading price of our common stock.

You will not receive any of the proceeds from Proposal One.

The proceeds from the transactions contemplated in Proposal One will be received by the Company, not our stockholders. As discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement, the Company does not plan to distribute any of the proceeds to stockholders, and instead plans to use such proceeds to pursue its general business operations, including the costs associated with the transactions.

The Company will be subject to certain contractual restrictions while the transactions contemplated in Proposal One are pending.

The Share Purchase Agreement restricts the Company from making certain acquisitions and divestitures, entering into certain contracts, and taking other specified actions until the earlier of the completion of the transactions or the termination of the Share Purchase Agreement. These restrictions will apply during the period in which Unusual is seeking to complete its financing involving its initial public offering and listing on NASDAQ, which is anticipated to take several months following approval of Proposal One by our stockholders and may prevent the Company from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the transactions completion and could have the effect of delaying or preventing other strategic transactions or providing the Company capital in order to pursue its enterprise and government businesses.

The Company could suffer adverse effects that could be exacerbated by any delays in completion of the transactions contemplated in Proposal One.

Adverse effects arising from the pendency of the Share Purchase Agreement Transaction could be exacerbated by any delays in completion of the Share Purchase Agreement Transaction or termination of the Share Purchase Agreement.

Our directors and executive officers may have interests in the transactions involving Proposal One other than, or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally.

Our Chief Executive Officer, Chairman and founder, Jeffrey Thompson, is also the founder of Unusual and Chief Executive Officer and Chairman from its inception in July 2019 until April 2022. Mr. Thompson also owns 1,557,000 shares of Unusual common stock he acquired as a founder, which represents approximately 23% prior to giving effect to the Unusual IPO and the issuance of any securities under the Share Purchase Agreement. Accordingly, Mr. Thompson's interest in the matters under consideration under Proposal One are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally. The Board of Directors was aware of the interests of Mr. Thompson and formed a special committee of independent directors in order to negotiate the Share Purchase Agreement, and requires that Mr. Thompson's ownership interest in the Company be excluded from the calculation of votes "in favor" of the transactions contemplated in Proposal One. In addition, Mr. Thompson did not participate in the deliberations and considerations of the Board of Directors in considering the Share Purchase Agreement and the transactions under consideration in Proposal One.

In light of the forgoing factors, including the different interests of Mr. Thompson, as well as the requirements of Nevada law as described below, we have determined that a majority of the votes cast in favor of the transaction will be required to approve the Share Purchase Agreement, excluding any votes held by Jeffrey Thompson, our Chief Executive Officer who is also a significant stockholder of the Company, and Unusual. As of January 27, 2023, the record date for the meeting, there were 55,131,784 shares eligible to vote, including 54,309,554 shares of common stock outstanding and 822,230 votes held by holders of Series B Preferred Stock eligible to vote on an as-converted basis. A majority of the votes cast in favor of the transaction will be required to approve the Share Purchase Agreement, excluding any votes held by Jeffrey Thompson, our Chief Executive Officer, who is also a significant stockholder of both the Company and Unusual. As of the January 27, 2023 record date, Mr. Thompson owned 12,304,877 shares of our common stock based on his Form 4 filings with the SEC and other related information available to us, representing approximately 22% of votes eligible to be cast at the meeting. After excluding Mr. Thompson's shares, Proposal One will require the affirmative vote of 50.1%, or 21,413,882 of the disinterested shares. Based on their Form 4 filings and other information available to us, our officers and directors are expected to vote approximately 2,283,000 shares "FOR" Proposal One.

The Share Purchase Agreement limits our ability to pursue alternatives.

The Share Purchase Agreement, contains provisions that may make it more difficult for us to sell the Target Companies to any party other than Unusual. These provisions include the prohibition on our ability to solicit competing proposals and the requirement that we pay Unusual a termination-fee of $500,000 in certain circumstances in the event that we accept a superior proposal.

These provisions could make it less advantageous for a third party that might have an interest in acquiring the Target Companies to consider or propose an alternative transaction, even if that party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher value than the consideration to be paid by Unusual.

Holders of the Company's common stock will not have appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the Share Purchase Agreement.

Neither Nevada law nor our Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, as amended, provide Company stockholders with appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the transactions under consideration in Proposal One.

The Share Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the transaction may not be completed. We may owe a break-fee in connection with a termination of the Share Purchase Agreement under certain circumstances.

The completion of the Share Purchase Agreement Transaction is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions. These conditions to closing may not be fulfilled and, accordingly, the transaction, even if approved by stockholders, may not be completed. In addition, if not completed by March 30, 2023, either the Company or Unusual may terminate the Share Purchase Agreement, provided that the right to terminate the Share Purchase Agreement shall not be available to a party whose breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement in the Share Purchase Agreement has been the principal cause of, or resulted in the failure of the closing to be contemplated.

In addition, each of Red Cat and Unusual may elect to terminate the Share Purchase Agreement in certain circumstances. Red Cat may be required to pay a termination fee to Unusual if Red Cat terminates the Share Purchase Agreement in certain circumstances. If the Share Purchase Agreement is terminated by either party, the Company may incur substantial fees in connection with the termination of the Share Purchase Agreement and will not recognize the anticipated benefits of the transaction, including receipt of the purchase price.

Termination of the Share Purchase Agreement could negatively impact the Company.

If the Share Purchase Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms and the transactions contemplated in Proposal One are not completed, the ongoing business of the Company may be adversely affected by a variety of factors. The Company's business may be impacted by having foregone other strategic opportunities during the pendency of the transaction, the failure to obtain the anticipated benefits of completing the transaction, changes to existing business relationships caused by uncertainties pending the transaction, payment of certain costs, and the attention, time, and resources of our senior management and other employees devoted to the transaction, diverting their attention from the conduct of our business and the ability to refocus energies on the enterprise and government segments of the business. The Company may also be negatively impacted if the Share Purchase Agreement is terminated and the Board is unable to execute an alternative strategic transaction offering equivalent or more attractive benefits than the benefits to be provided in the pending transaction.

Failure to complete the transactions contemplated in Proposal One could cause the Company's stock price to decline.

The failure to complete and close the Share Purchase Agreement may create doubt as to the value of the Company and about the Company's ability to effectively implement its current business strategies and/or a strategic transaction, which may result in a decline in the Company's stock price.

The Company will have discretion in the use of the net proceeds.

If completed, the purchase price consisting of a minimum of $5 million in cash paid at closing, unless adjusted will be paid directly to the Company. The Company currently plans to use such funds for costs and expenses of the transaction as well as increasing its focus upon the enterprise and government sectors. The Company retains the right to revise the purchase price, including following approval by the stockholders of Proposal One, including the cash payable at closing, in the event that the Company's Board of Directors determines that such adjustment is in the best interests of its stockholders, for example, in the event that the Unusual IPO produces less proceeds from the sale of Unusual securities than may be anticipated at present.

The amount of consideration the Company will receive is subject to uncertainties.

Pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement, the amount of consideration that the Company will receive from Unusual is subject to uncertainties by virtue of the purchase price adjustments set forth in the Share Purchase Agreement, which is subject to adjustments based on levels of working capital at closing. Working capital balances fluctuate over time and it is expected that the amount of working capital reflected in the pro-forma financial statements presented in this proxy statement will be reduced significantly prior to closing, with the cash proceeds from sales of inventory, among other things, reducing intercompany loan balances to zero or close to the average working capital that would be reflected for normal monthly operations. In addition, the value to the Company from the Senior Secured Note and the Series A Preferred Stock to be received at closing is uncertain and may not be realized and depends to a large extent on the ability of Unusual to succeed as a separate company.

The Company will incur significant transaction costs in connection with the transaction contemplated in Proposal One.

The Company has incurred, and expects to incur, significant non-recurring costs associated with the transactions contemplated in Proposal One, even if the stockholders of the Company fail to approve Proposal One. These costs and expenses include financial advisory, legal, accounting, consulting, and other advisory fees and expenses, restructuring costs, employee benefits-related expenses, public company filing fees and other regulatory expenses, printing expenses, and other related charges. Through the date of this proxy statement, the Company has incurred aggregate transaction costs of approximately $75,000, which have been defrayed by a $100,000 non-refundable earnest money deposit paid by Unusual. Based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement, the Company anticipates incurring additional transaction costs of approximately $150,000 in connection with the transactions contemplated in Proposal One, most of which are contingent upon the closing. Some of these costs are payable by the Company regardless of whether the closing of the Share Purchase Agreement occurs.

Risks Related to the Company and its Continuing Operations if the Transactions Contemplated in Proposal One are Completed

If the Share Purchase Agreement is completed, we will no longer be engaged in the hobbyist and consumer segments and our future results of operations will be dependent solely on our efforts to capitalize on enterprise and government business (including domestic and international military, border security and safety) and differ materially from our previous results of operations.

Since January 2020, we acquired four separate businesses operating in various aspects of the drone industry. Following the acquisition of Teal Drones, Inc. in August 2021, the Company focused on integrating and organizing its acquired businesses. These efforts included refining the establishment of Enterprise and Consumer segments to sharpen the Company's focus on the unique opportunities in each sector of the drone industry. The Enterprise segment, which includes Teal Drones and Skypersonic, Inc. is focused on opportunities in the commercial sector, including military. Enterprise is building the infrastructure to manage drone fleets, fly and provide services remotely, and navigate confined industrial interior spaces and dangerous military environments. The Consumer segment, which includes Rotor Riot and Fat Shark, is focused on enthusiasts and hobbyists which are expected to increase as drones become more visible in our daily lives. Effective May 1, 2022, we began to manage our business operations through these business segments. The reportable segments were identified based on how our chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), which is a committee comprised of our Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), Chief Operating Officer ("COO") and our Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), manages our business, makes resource allocation and operating decisions, and evaluates operating performance. The financial results for each segment for the three and six months ended, as reported in our most recently filed 10-Q, were as follows:

The descriptions and amounts under the heading “Consumer”, if the Share Purchase Agreement transactions close, will no longer be available to the Company following closing. As a result, the Company’s assets and performance of its Enterprise segment will be its only business and assets following the closing.

We will continue to incur the expenses of complying with public company reporting requirements following the closing of the sale of the Target Companies notwithstanding the decrease in the size of our operations.

After the closing of the transactions contemplated in Proposal One, we will continue to be required to comply with the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and as a NASDAQ listed company. The expense of complying with these requirements is expected to at least initially represent a greater percentage of our revenues and overall operating expenses than they did prior to the closing because of our reduced operations following the disposition of the Target Companies.

The market price of our common stock may be adversely affected by the transactions contemplated in Proposal One and we may fail to satisfy the continued listing standards of The NASDAQ Capital Market, which could result in the delisting of our common stock.

The continued listing standards of The NASDAQ Capital Market include, among other things, requirements that we maintain certain levels of stockholders’ equity, net income from continuing operations or market capitalization and a minimum trading price. Recently, our stock price has failed to close above $1.00 per share for extended periods. As a result, even if we were to regain compliance, we may not be able to continue to meet the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement of The NADAQ Capital Market and/or satisfy other of the continued listing requirements.

PROPOSAL ONE: THE SALE OF ROTOR RIOT AND FAT SHARK

As discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement, including under, the holders of the Company’s common stock, other than the shares owned by our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (the “Disinterested Shareholders”) will consider and vote on Proposal One. The Disinterested Shareholders should read this proxy statement carefully in its entirety, including but not limited to the section entitled “The Share Purchase Agreement Transaction” including the annexes (which are incorporated by reference herein), for more detailed information concerning the Share Purchase Agreement. A copy of the Share Purchase Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A.

Under the Nevada Revised Statutes we determined that Jeffrey Thompson is deemed to an “interested shareholder” of the Company. The Nevada Revised Statutes generally prohibit a Nevada corporation, such as the Company, from engaging in a combination with any shareholder considered an interested shareholder of the corporation. However, Section 78.439 of the Nevada Revised Statutes permits such a transaction provided that is approved by a majority the outstanding shares of the corporation not owned by the interested shareholder. Because he owns approximately 23% of the outstanding capital stock of Unusual, the transactions contemplated in Proposal One are considered by us to be a combination with an interested shareholder under the Nevada Revised Statutes. Accordingly, we believe that it is prudent to approve the sale by the Disinterested Shareholders and we are therefore asking the Disinterested Shareholders to approve the sale of the Target Companies by adopting the following resolution:

“WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company has determined that it is expedient and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for the Company to dispose and sell its consumer businesses consisting of Rotor Riot, LLC and Fat Shark Holdings, Ltd. (the “Target Companies” on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in that certain Share Purchase Agreement, by and between the Company, Jeffrey Thompson, and Unusual Machines, Inc. dated as of November 21, 2022 (as it may be amended from time to time and including all exhibits and schedules referenced therein and/or attached thereto, the “Share Purchase Agreement”).

RESOLVED, that the sale of the Target Companies on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Share Purchase Agreement is hereby approved, authorized and adopted in all respects.”

A vote in favor of the Proposal One will be deemed the approval of the Share Purchase Agreement, the terms and conditions thereof, and the transactions contemplated therein and thereby, including any and all amendments thereto approved by the Board of Directors of the Company following approval.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL ONE.

PROPOSAL TWO: ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

If the number of shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and voting in favor of Proposal One is insufficient to approve the Purchase and Sale Agreement at the time of the Special Meeting, we intend to move to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate (as determined by our Board of Directors) to a later time or date, from time to time, in order to enable the Board of Directors to solicit additional proxies in respect of Proposal One.

In the Adjournment Proposal, we are asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board of Directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy holders, and each of them individually, to adjourn the Special Meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If our stockholders approve the Adjournment Proposal, we could adjourn the Special Meeting and any adjourned session of the Special Meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from stockholders that have previously voted.

Required Vote; Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Approval of Proposal Two requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company’s common stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the matter at the Special Meeting (meaning that of the shares of common stock represented at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote, a majority of them must be voted “FOR” the Adjournment Proposal for it to be approved). For Proposal Two, Mr. Thompson’s will be entitled to cast a vote “For” Proposal Two which shall be counted. For purposes of the vote on Proposal Two, an abstention will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” the Adjournment Proposal, but the failure to sign and return your proxy card or vote by telephone, fax, over the Internet or in person at the Special Meeting will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal. Broker non-votes will also have no effect on the outcome of the proposal.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL TWO.

THE SHARE PURCHASE AGREEMENT TRANSACTION

The discussion in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Share Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and hereby incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the Share Purchase Agreement carefully and, in its entirety, as it is the legal document that governs the Sale.

Overview of the Share Purchase Agreement

On November 21, 2022 (the “Effective Date”), the Company, as seller, and Jeffrey Thompson, as principal stockholder, entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with Unusual pursuant to which Unusual will acquire, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Share Purchase Agreement, 100% of the issued and outstanding equity interests of the Target Companies, for a total purchase price of $18 million consisting of (i) $5.0 million in cash, subject to adjustment for the Target Companies’ working capital balance on the closing date, and a $2.5 million 8% Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note that will mature on the 3 year anniversary date of the closing of the transaction (the “Unusual Note”) of Unusual convertible into common stock of Unusual, and (ii) $10.5 million in shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the “Unusual Preferred Stock”) of Unusual. Each of the Unusual Note and the Unusual Preferred Stock are convertible into Unusual common stock, par value $0.001 per share, at the lower of (A) $4.00 (subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends or similar events) or (B) the Offering price of Unusual in its initial public offering transaction. The Unusual Note and the Unusual Preferred Stock contain 4.99/9.99% beneficial ownership blockers and other usual and customary provisions, including price protection for lower priced issuances, for so long as the Unusual Note or the Unusual Preferred Stock remain outstanding. In addition, all shares of Unusual common stock issuable upon conversion of Unusual’s 8% Senior Secured Convertible Notes and Series A Convertible Preferred Stock are subject to a registration rights agreement which obligates Unusual to register the shares of common stock issuable for resale by Red Cat under certain circumstances.

The Share Purchase Agreement is attached hereto as Annex A.

The 8% Senior Secured Convertible Note is attached hereto as Annex B.

The Security Agreement is attached hereto as Annex C

The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock Certificate of Designation is attached hereto as Annex D.

The Registration Rights Agreement is attached hereto as Annex E

The discussions in this proxy statement of the Share Purchase Agreement, 8% Senior Secured Note that will mature on the 3 year anniversary date of the closing of the transaction, Security Agreement, Series A Convertible Preferred Stock Certificate of Designation, and Registration Rights Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copies thereof attached to this proxy statement as Annex A-E hereto and are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the Annexes carefully and in their entirety as they are the legal documents that govern the transactions submitted for approval under Proposal One.

Parties to the Share Purchase Agreement

Red Cat Holdings, Inc.

Based in San Juan Puerto Rico, Red Cat acquired four separate businesses operating in various aspects of the drone industry. Following the acquisition of Teal Drones, Inc. in August 2021, the Company focused on integrating and organizing its acquired businesses. These efforts included refining the establishment of Enterprise and Consumer segments to sharpen the Company’s focus on the unique opportunities in each sector of the drone industry. The Enterprise segment, which includes Teal Drones, Inc. and Skypersonic, Inc. is focused on opportunities in the commercial sector, including the military. Enterprise is building the infrastructure to manage drone fleets, fly and provide services remotely, and navigate confined industrial interior spaces and dangerous military environments. The Consumer segment, which includes Rotor Riot and Fat Shark, is focused on enthusiasts and hobbyists which are expected to increase as drones become more visible in our daily lives. Effective May 1, 2022, we began to manage our business operations through these business segments.

Effective May 15, 2019, the Company closed a Share Exchange Agreement (the “SEA”) with Red Cat Propware, Inc. (“Propware”), a privately-held Nevada corporation and each of its shareholders. Under the SEA, we acquired all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Propware, in exchange for issuance to the Propware shareholders of: (i) 236,000,000 (pre-split) shares of common stock, and (ii) 2,169,068 (pre-split) shares of newly-designated Series A Preferred Stock. Our Series A Preferred Stock has been fully converted.

Jeffrey Thompson, founded the Company in 2018 as a privately held company, which became public as described above. He currently serves as our CEO and Chairman of the Board.

Unusual Machines, Inc.

Unusual is a Puerto Rico corporation organized in 2019. It is a development stage technology company engaged in the commercial drone industry and its current primary business objective is to acquire the Target Companies. Unusual intends for the Target Companies to continue to focus on leveraging and growing the market share in the consumer and hobbyist sectors of drone products for use in entertainment, recreational and competitive racing purposes. Unusual also plans to explore a potential expansion into new sub-markets such as public safety and drone delivery functions, organically and/or through strategic acquisitions.

Background to the Share Purchase Agreement

The following chronology summarizes the key meetings and events that led to the signing of the Share Purchase Agreement. This chronology does not purport to catalogue every conversation among the officers of Red Cat, the Board of Directors or the representatives of Red Cat, and other parties, including those employed by or associated with Unusual.

Strategic Review Process

From time to time, the Board of Directors and our senior management team review and evaluate strategic opportunities and alternatives as part of a long-term strategy to increase stockholder value. Such opportunities include remaining as a stand-alone entity, potential acquisitions of companies, businesses or assets that align with our strategic objectives and potential dispositions of one of more businesses. Following the acquisition of Teal Drones, Inc. in August 2021, the Company began to establish separate enterprise and consumer divisions in anticipation of growth in government customers including defense, public safety, and infrastructure. The Company expects enterprise customers to become its most significant revenue drivers for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 2023, anchored by Teal. Following the Teal acquisition, several major driving forces were examined by the Board of Directors and senior management including the following:

Teal Drones

- The U.S. Army banned its forces from using Chinese-made quadcopter due to security risks
- The U.S. Department of Defense began developing its own alternatives under a defense program known as Blue sUAS
- Teal opened a new 25,000 square foot manufacturing facility in Salt Lake City, Utah
- Teal was one of five contractors awarded firm, fixed price, multiple award blanket purchase agreements by United States Customs and Border Protection with an estimated $90 million value over a 5 year period inclusive of orders that can be placed by the Department of Homeland Security
- The US Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act of 2022 was passed which management believes will enhance built in America sourcing

- In March 2022, Teal was selected by the Innovation Unit of the Department of Defense and the U.S. Army to compete in the Short Range Reconnaissance Tranche 2 Program and notified it would advance to the prototype phase and awarded a $1.5 million contract
- In April 2022, Teal secured an order for 15 Golden Eagle drone units, parts, and training from a NATO member country to be deployed in Ukraine
- In May 2022, Teal completed development and production of a four-drone, multi-vehicle system for defense, government and public safety markets which provides the technology for a single pilot to simultaneously control up to four Golden Eagle drones

Skypersonic

- In September 2021, Skypersonic was awarded a five-year contract with NASA to provide drone and rover software, hardware and support for NASA's Simulated Mars mission
- In May 2022, Skypersonic completed a 2 year inspection program with General Motors in 19 of its North American facilities
- In June 2022, Skypersonic completed inspection of a utility plant in Turin, Italy piloted from Orlando, FL on an internet connection

Sale of Target Companies

In August of 2022, our Chief Operating Officer, Allan Evans, had several informal discussions with Brandon Torres Delet, Chief Executive Officer of Unusual, regarding a potential transaction involving the sale of the Target Companies to Unusual. On August 23, 2022, Evans and Mr. Torres Delet met in person for further discussions. Following that meeting, Unusual provided an unsolicited draft Letter of Intent outlining proposed terms for the acquisition of the Target Companies (the "LOI").

On September 2, 2022, our Chief Operating Officer, Allan Evans, our Chief Financial Officer and our Lead Director Joseph Freedman, held a conference call to discuss the LOI.

On September 12, 2022, Mr. Freedman spoke with Mr. Torres Delet by telephone to discuss the LOI and to discuss his background and vision and the circumstances surrounding his appointment as CEO of Unusual Machines. During the call, issues related to competing with the Company, financing and the cash position of Unusual Machines were also raised.

On September 15, 2022, the Board of Directors met by video conference, with outside legal and financial advisers participating. The Board of Directors heard an informal presentation from Think Equity!, its investment banking firm, addressing the condition of the public markets, the Company's present market capitalization, the interest in the markets of an enterprise division separated from a consumer division, and the prospects for a successful spin-out in the current depressed market. No written report was provided. The Board discussed various aspects of the proposed LOI including valuation, a no-shop period, and current valuation and stock price of the Company. The Board of Directors also analyzed the conflict of interest concerning the Company's Chief Executive Officer and his position as a founder, significant stockholder and board member of Unusual. Accordingly, the Board determined that a special committee consisting of Mr. Freedman and Mr. Moe, both independent directors, would be established to consider and evaluate the proposed sale of the Target Companies (the "Special Committee"). Mr. Freedman served as chair of the Special Committee. In addition, the Board determined that Mr. Thompson would be excluded from negotiations and abstain from voting on all matters related to the transaction.

During the period between September 15, 2022 and September 25, 2022, the Company's outside legal counsel exchanged several drafts of the LOI with Unusual.

On September 23, 2022, the Company held its annual meeting of shareholders in Newport, Rhode Island. Following the meeting, the Special Committee met with Mr. Evans to discuss management's views on the advantages of moving forward with an exclusive focus on the infrastructure segment, including military, border control, police and homeland security type opportunities. Afterwards, Mr. Torres Delet met with the Special Committee in person and reviewed materials he distributed outlining the proposal and future prospects for Unusual, including his background and experience as a drone company executive, Unusual's present funding, its future IPO, its commitment to consumer focus, the terms of the purchase contract and securities to be issued and other aspects of the transaction should the transaction be approved. Outside counsel to the Company was also present and discussed legal requirements for approval, legal fiduciary duty obligations of directors of a Nevada publicly traded company to entertain alternative proposals, desire to obtain a third-party independent valuation and stockholder votes required for approval. The Special Committee indicated to Mr. Torres Delet that the Company would require that it entertain alternative bids and solicit proposals from third parties as part of the process in order for the Company to proceed with any proposal from Unusual, matters to which Mr. Torres Delet agreed in principal at the meeting.

On September 27, 2022, the Special Committee met via conference call with the Company's outside legal counsel to consider the September 25, 2022, version of the LOI. The Special Committee focused on the risk and significance to the potential transaction of a successful initial public offering by Unusual and the nature of and parties to the representations and warranties being requested by Unusual with respect to the Target Companies. Following the meeting, the Company's outside legal counsel spoke with Unusual's legal counsel to discuss certain issues relating to the LOI.

On September 28, 2022, the Company's outside legal counsel met with the Special Committee via conference call and briefed the Committee on the call with Unusual's legal counsel the day before. Following that call, the Special Committee met again via conference call with Mr. Torres Delet and counsel to Unusual via conference call to discuss certain aspects of the documentation requests by Unusual. In particular, the Company generally rejected Unusual's proposal that the Company provide business representations and warranties with respect to the operations of the Target Companies and indemnification rights that could be asserted against the Company for a period following closing. After that call, the Company's outside legal counsel spoke with Mr. Thompson who indicated his approval to personally provide Unusual certain operational representations and warranties and his willingness to pledge Unusual shares to as security to Unusual to support any indemnification obligations in connection with the business representations and warranties. The Company's legal counsel updated the Special Committee via conference call. There was a follow-up conference call with the Special Committee and Mr. Torres Delet to further discuss the proposed transaction. Over the next several days, the parties exchanged marked-up drafts of the LOI, the Special Committee had several calls to discuss the mark-ups, and remaining issues were resolved.

On September 29, 2022, the Special Committee met via conference call to address further LOI revisions.

On October 1, 2022, Unusual provided an executed version of the revised LOI to the Special Committee.

On October 2, 2022, counsel to the Company sent a message and non-disclosure agreement to a third-party potential alternative bidder for the Target Companies that had previously expressed interest in Fat Shark involved in the virtual headset business. In the call that followed, the potential bidder indicated it would not be interested in making an offer and no longer had interest in the specific business performed by Fat Shark.

On October 3, 2022, the full Board of Directors met by video conference to receive the recommendations of the Special Committee and consider the LOI and the proposed transaction. Mr. Thompson did not attend the meeting and did not participate in the deliberations or recommendations. The Company's legal counsel outlined for the Board the history of the negotiations of the LOI and responded to questions of the Board members with respect thereto and outlined steps for a valuation, receiving alternative proposals and submission of a transaction to a vote of shareholders as contemplated by the LOI. After discussion, the members of the Board unanimously approved the LOI and authorized execution by the Company.

On October 3, 2022, the Company engaged Vantage Point Advisors, Inc. to prepare a valuation to be used in connection with the transaction.

Between October 4, 2022, and November 16, 2022, the Company's management team worked with representatives of Unusual to facilitate due diligence review of the Target Companies and held discussions with other potential alternative bidders for the Target Companies. The management team also provided information and materials to Vantage Point Advisors to be used in their valuation of the Target Companies. In addition, during this period, the Company's outside legal counsel worked with the Special Committee and representatives of Unusual to draft, negotiate and finalize the Share Purchase Agreement.

On November 16, 2022, the Special Committee met with outside legal counsel via a conference call to discuss the status of the Share Purchase Agreement. That was followed by a video conference call of senior management of each of the Company and Unusual to discuss the proposed transaction.

On November 21, 2022, the Board of Directors held a special meeting by video conference to consider the proposed transaction and the Share Purchase Agreement. The Company's newly appointed director Mary Beth Long as well as the full board were provided with a lengthy presentation by the Special Committee and outside legal counsel of the history and negotiation of the Share Purchase Agreement. The Company's Chief Financial Officer also participated in the meeting and provided comments. The Company's outside legal counsel reviewed the history and nature of the Unusual relationship, the relationship of Mr. Thompson to Unusual, and the negotiation of the Share Purchase Agreement. The outside legal counsel and Special Committee responded to numerous questions from the Board members including the impact of the transaction on the projected revenues and cash flow of the Company. After discussion, the members of the Board present at the meeting unanimously (i) determined that the transactions contemplated in the Share Purchase Agreement are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and (ii) approved the Share Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein, with Mr. Thompson abstaining from the vote.

Fair Market Value Analysis by Vantage Point Advisors, Inc.

On October 3, 2022, the Board engaged Vantage Point Advisors, Inc. ("VPA") to prepare a fair market value analysis of each of the Target Companies. On December 14, 2022, VPA delivered draft reports to the Board with respect to each Target Company providing its analysis of the fair market value analysis of each Target Company as of November 30, 2022.

Summary of Material Financial Analysis

Vantage Point Advisors, Inc. ("VPA"), which was subsequently acquired by Stout Risius Ross, LLC, was engaged by the Company to provide a valuation of the Target Companies in connection with the proposed transaction. As part of its engagement, VPA, at the request of the Company, on December 14, 2022, provided to the Company materials regarding VPA's valuation of the Target Companies.

VPA's materials were provided for the information of the Company in its review of the Target Companies in connection with the proposed Transaction and were not to be used for any other purpose. VPA's materials did not address the underlying business decision of the Company, its board of directors or any other party to enter into the Share Purchase Agreement, or the relative merits of the proposed Transaction as compared to any alternative transaction or strategy that may have been available to the Company or the Target Companies. The Share Purchase Agreement

The following discussion sets forth the material terms of the Share Purchase Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read the Purchase Agreement carefully and in its entirety. The summary of the Share Purchase Agreement is included in this information statement only to provide you with information regarding its terms and conditions, and not to provide any other factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses. You should read the information provided elsewhere in this information statement for information regarding the parties and their respective businesses. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Purchase Agreement that is important to you. You should refer to the full text of the Share Purchase Agreement for details of the transaction and the terms and conditions of the Share Purchase Agreement.

Additionally, the representations, warranties and covenants described in this summary and contained in the Purchase Agreement have been made only for the purpose of the Share Purchase Agreement and, as such, are intended solely for the benefit of the Company and Unusual. In many cases, these representations, warranties and covenants are subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties and are qualified by certain disclosures exchanged by the parties in connection with the execution of the Share Purchase Agreement. Furthermore, many of the representations and warranties contained in the Share Purchase Agreement are the result of a negotiated allocation of contractual risk among the parties and, taken in isolation, do not necessarily reflect facts about the Company and Unusual, their respective subsidiaries and affiliates or any other party. Likewise, any references to materiality contained in the representations and warranties may not correspond to concepts of materiality applicable to investors or stockholders. Finally, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Share Purchase Agreement or may change in the future, and these changes may not be fully reflected in the public disclosures made by the Company and Unusual. As a result of the foregoing, you are strongly encouraged not to rely on the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Share Purchase Agreement, or any descriptions thereof, as accurate characterizations of the state of facts or condition of the Company, the Target Companies, Unusual or any other party. You are likewise cautioned that you are not a third-party beneficiary under the Purchase Agreement and do not have any direct rights or remedies pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement.

Sale of the Target Companies

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Share Purchase Agreement, Unusual will purchase from the Company all outstanding capital stock of the Target Companies for a total purchase price of $18 million consisting of (i) $5.0 million in cash, subject to adjustment for the Target Companies' working capital balance as of the closing date, (ii) a $2.5 million of Unusual Notes, and (iii) $10.5 million in Unusual Convertible Preferred.

Closing

The closing will take place at 11:30 AM EST, or as soon as commercially practicable unless the Share Purchase Agreement has been terminated pursuant to its terms or unless another time or date is agreed to by the parties.

Escrow Shares

At the Closing, the Principal Stockholder shall deliver to the escrow agent, 450,000 shares of Unusual common stock, to provide security for the Company's and the Principal Stockholder's indemnification obligations under the Share Purchase Agreement.

Post-Closing Audit; Purchase Price Adjustment

The Share Purchase Agreement provides that no more than 10 and no later than three days prior to the Closing Date, we will prepare and deliver to Unusual (i) an unaudited preliminary consolidated balance sheets of the Target Companies (the "Unaudited Preliminary Balance Sheets") as of the Closing Date and a preliminary unaudited profit and loss statement for the period ending on the Closing Date (the "Preliminary Unaudited Profit & Loss Statement"), in accordance GAAP (collectively, the "Closing Trial Balance"), (ii) a statement (the "Estimated Working Capital Statement") setting forth our reasonable and good faith estimate of the Closing Date Working Capital, by reference to the Closing Trial Balance and (iii) a statement setting forth the calculation of the amount by which the estimated Closing Date Working Capital either exceeds the Agreed Working Capital (such amount, the "Estimated Working Capital Excess Amount") or is less than the Agreed Working Capital (such amount, the "Estimated Working Capital Deficiency Amount").

If there was an Estimated Working Capital Excess Amount or an Estimated Working Capital Deficiency Amount, at the Closing the aggregate Consideration shall be adjusted upward or downward dollar-for-dollar as appropriate. If there is an Estimated Working Capital Excess Amount, the amount shall be paid to Red Cat as additional cash Consideration at the Closing, unless Red Cat agrees to payment terms for current assets such as inventory. Working capital balances fluctuate over time and it is expected that the amount of working capital reflected in the pro-forma financial statements presented in this proxy statement will be reduced significantly prior to closing, with the cash proceeds from sales of inventory, among other things, reducing intercompany loan balances to zero or close to the average working capital that would be reflected for normal monthly operations. If there is an Estimated Working Capital Deficiency Amount, the amount shall first be credited to the Unusual Note amount and any additional amount applied as a reduction in the cash Consideration.

Within 45 days after the Closing Date or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practical using commercially reasonable efforts, Unusual will prepare and deliver to us (i) closing balance sheets of each of the Target Companies as of the Closing Date, in accordance with GAAP (the "Closing Date Balance Sheets"), (ii) the calculations (the "Working Capital Calculations") of the Working Capital of each of the Target Companies (the "Working Capital") as of the Closing Date, and (iii) a statement setting forth the actual calculation of the Closing Date Working Capital of both Target Companies. The Share Purchase Agreement provides that neither Red Cat nor Unusual, shall, and each shall cause their respective representatives, subsidiaries or subsidiaries' representatives as applicable, not to, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate, or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any takeover proposal ("Takeover Proposal") or the making of any proposal that could reasonably be expected to lead to any Takeover Proposal, or, subject to the paragraph below: (i) conduct or engage in any discussions or negotiations with, disclose any non-public information relating to Red Cat or Unusual or any of their respective subsidiaries, as applicable, to, afford access to the business, properties, assets, books, or records of Red Cat or Unusual or any of their respective subsidiaries to, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate, or encourage any effort by, any third party (or its potential sources of financing) that is seeking to make, or has made, any Takeover Proposal; (ii) except where the Red Cat Board or Unusual Board, as applicable, makes a good faith determination, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to do so would cause it to be in breach of its fiduciary duties, amend or grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of Red Cat or Unusual, as applicable, or any of their respective Subsidiaries to, amend or grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of Red Cat or Unusual, as applicable, or any of their respective Subsidiaries; or (iii) enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, or other Target Company contract relating to any Takeover Proposal (each, an "Acquisition Agreement"). Red Cat on the one hand, and Unusual, on the other hand, shall, and shall cause their respective representatives, subsidiaries and subsidiaries' representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated any and all existing activities, discussions, or negotiations, if any, with any third party conducted prior to the Effective Date with respect to any Takeover Proposal and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any such third party (or its agents or advisors) in possession of non-public information in respect of Red Cat or Unusual, as applicable, and any of their respective subsidiaries that was furnished by or on behalf of such party or its respective subsidiaries to return or destroy (and confirm destruction of) all such information. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that any violation of or the taking of actions inconsistent with the restrictions described herein by any Representative of Red Cat or its subsidiaries, on the one hand, or Unusual or its subsidiaries, on the other hand, whether or not such representative is purporting to act on behalf of the applicable party or any of its subsidiaries, shall be deemed to be a breach of these provisions by the applicable party.

Superior Proposal. Notwithstanding the restriction in the foregoing paragraph, prior to the receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote, the Red Cat Board, directly or indirectly through any representative, may, subject to the provisions described below: (i) participate in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made (and not withdrawn) a bona fide, unsolicited Takeover Proposal in writing that the Red Cat Board believes in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal; (ii) thereafter furnish to such third party non-public information relating to such Party or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to an executed Confidentiality Agreement that constitutes an acceptable Confidentiality Agreement (“Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement”) (a copy of which Confidentiality Agreement shall be promptly (in all events within 24 hours) provided for informational purposes to the other Party); (iii) following receipt of and on account of a Superior Proposal, make a Red Cat Adverse Recommendation Change; and/or (iv) take any action that any court of competent jurisdiction orders such Party to take (which order remains unstayed), but in each case referred to in the foregoing clauses (i) through (iv), only if the Red Cat Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would cause it to be in breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Red Cat Board from disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to a Takeover Proposal, if the Party determines, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to disclose such position would cause Red Cat Board to be in breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

Notification to the Other Party. The Red Cat Board, shall not take any of the actions referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of the prior paragraph unless Red Cat shall have delivered to Unusual a prior written notice advising Unusual that it intends to take such action. Red Cat shall notify Unusual promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after it obtains Knowledge of the receipt by Red Cat (or any of its Representatives) of any Takeover Proposal, any inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Takeover Proposal, any request for non-public information relating to Red Cat or any of its subsidiaries or for access to the business, properties, assets, books, or records of Red Cat or any of its subsidiaries by any third party. In such notice, Red Cat shall identify the third party making, and details of the material terms and conditions of, any such Takeover Proposal, indication or request, including any proposed financing. Red Cat shall keep Unusual fully informed, on a current basis, of the status and material terms of any such Takeover Proposal, indication or request, including any material amendments or proposed amendments as to price, proposed financing, and other material terms thereof. Red Cat shall provide Unusual with at least 48 hours prior notice of any meeting of the Red Cat Board, or any committee (“Red Cat Board Committee”) thereof (or such lesser notice as is provided to the members of the Red Cat Board or Red Cat Board Committee) at which the Red Cat Board, or Red Cat Board Committee, is reasonably expected to consider any Takeover Proposal. Red Cat shall promptly provide Unusual with a list of any non-public information concerning such Red Cat’s or any of its Subsidiaries’ business, present or future performance, financial condition, or results of operations, provided to any third party, and, to the extent such information has not been previously provided to Unusual, copies of such information.

Adverse Recommendation Change or Acquisition Agreement. Except as expressly permitted by the provisions discussed in this section, the Red Cat Board shall not effect a Red Cat Adverse Recommendation Change; or enter into (or permit any of its respective Subsidiaries to enter into) an Acquisition Agreement. The Share Purchase Agreement provides that upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein (including those described in this paragraph, each of the Parties hereto shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use its respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other Parties in doing, all things necessary, proper, or advisable to consummate and make effective, and to satisfy all conditions to, (and in any event no later than the End Date, as defined), the Share Purchase Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Share Purchase Agreement, including: (i) the obtaining of all Material Permits, waivers, and actions or non-actions from Governmental Authorities and the making of all necessary registrations, filings, and notifications (including filings with any Governmental Authority) and the taking of all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Authority; (ii) the obtaining of all necessary consents or waivers from third parties; and (iii) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Share Purchase Agreement and to fully carry out the purposes of the Share Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions described in this Paragraph shall not apply to any release, statement, announcement, or other disclosure made with respect to the Share Purchase Agreement and the other transactions contemplated hereby that is substantially similar (and identical in any material respect) to those in a previous release, statement, announcement, or other disclosure made by Red Cat or Unusual in accordance with this Paragraph.

8% Senior Secured Convertible Note

The following discussion sets forth the material terms of the Unusual 8% Senior Secured Convertible Note that will mature on the 3 year anniversary date of the closing of the transaction to be issued to the Company pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the 8% Senior Secured Convertible Note, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read Annex B carefully and in its entirety.

Under the Share Purchase Agreement, at closing Unusual will issue to Red Cat $2.5 million original principal amount of its 8% Senior Secured Convertible Note unless Unusual elects to pay Red Cat an additional $2.5 million of cash purchase price at closing.

The Unusual Note will mature 36 months following the date of closing, and bears interest at a rate of 8% per annum, payable in cash on each of the three, six, nine and twelve month anniversary of the end of each calendar quarter until paid in full on the maturity date. The Unusual Note is secured by a security interest granted to Red Cat in all of the assets and property of Unusual. The Unusual Note is initially convertible into Unusual common stock at a conversion price equal to the lower of $4.00 or the initial public offering price of UM. The conversion price is subject to adjustment in the event of certain events, including stock splits and dividends and for so long as the Unusual Note is outstanding, upon a lower-priced issuance by Unusual, other than Exempt Issuances, as defined in the Unusual Note.

At no time may all or a portion of the Unusual Note be converted if the number of shares of common stock to be issued pursuant to such conversion would exceed, when aggregated with all other shares of Unusual common stock owned by the holder at such time, the number of shares of common stock which would result in the holder beneficially owning more than 4.99% of all of the common stock outstanding at such time; provided, however, that upon the holder providing Unusual with sixty-one (61) days' advance notice that the holder would like to waive this paragraph with regard to any or all shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Unusual Note, this paragraph will be of no force or effect with regard to all or a portion of the Unusual Note referenced in the 4.99% waiver. Following waiver, at no time may all or a portion of the Unusual Note be converted if the number of shares of common stock to be issued pursuant to such conversion, when aggregated with all other shares of common stock owned by the holder at such time, would result in the holder beneficially owning in excess of 9.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock outstanding at such time.

Unusual has agreed to file a "resale" registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the Common Stock underlying the Unusual Note upon Red Cat's written request made following 90 days after the effective date of any underwritten public offering by Unusual (including the Unusual IPO) and a piggy-back registration statement whenever Unusual shall file a registration statement for its own account or the account of other security holders (other than the Unusual IPO). Unusual has agreed to use its best efforts to have the registration statement filed and declared effective.

In the event that the Company issues any Common Stock equivalents or rights to purchase stock, warrants, securities or other property pro rata to the record holders of any class of shares of Common Stock (the "Purchase Rights"), then the holders of the Notes will be entitled to acquire, upon the terms applicable to such Purchase Rights, the aggregate Purchase Rights which the holders could have acquired if the holders had held the number of shares of Common Stock acquirable upon complete conversion of the Notes.

Security Agreement

The following discussion sets forth the material terms of the Unusual Security Agreement to be issued to the Company pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Security Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read Annex C carefully and in its entirety.

Series A Convertible Preferred Stock - Certificate of Designation

The following discussion sets forth the material terms of Unusual's Series A Convertible Preferred Stock – Certificate of Designation to be issued to the Company pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Certificate of Designation, a copy of which is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read Annex D carefully and in its entirety.

Under the Share Purchase Agreement, at closing Unusual will issue to Red Cat $10.5 million its Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. The Stated Value of each share of Unusual Preferred Stock is $10 per share and Unusual will issue 1,050,000 shares of Series A Preferred to Red Cat at closing of the Share Purchase Agreement.

The Unusual Preferred Stock is initially convertible into Unusual common stock at a conversion price equal to the lower of $4.00 or the initial public offering price of UM. The conversion price is subject to adjustment in the event of certain events, including stock splits and dividends and for so long as the Unusual Preferred Stock is outstanding, upon a lower-priced issuance by Unusual, other than Exempt Issuances, as defined in the Unusual Preferred Stock Certificate of Designation.

The holder of Unusual Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters submitted to shareholders of Unusual and shall be entitled to the number of votes for each share of Unusual Preferred Stock owned at the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on such matter or, if no such record date is established, at the date such vote is taken or any written consent of shareholders is solicited, equal to the number of shares of common stock such shares of Unusual Preferred Stock are convertible into at such time. Except as otherwise required by law, the holders of shares of Unusual Preferred Stock shall vote together with the holders of common stock on all matters and shall not vote as a separate class.

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the business of Unusual, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holder of Unusual Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, for each share thereof, out of assets of Unusual legally available therefor, a preferential amount in cash equal to (and not more than) the stated value. All preferential amounts to be paid to the holders of Unusual Preferred Stock in connection with such liquidation, dissolution or winding up shall be paid before the payment or setting apart for payment of any amount for, or the distribution of any assets of Unusual to the holders of (i) any other class or series of capital stock whose terms expressly provide that the holders of Unusual Preferred Stock should receive preferential payment with respect to such distribution (to the extent of such preference) and (ii) Unusual's common stock. If upon any such distribution the assets of Unusual shall be insufficient to pay the holders of the outstanding shares of Unusual Preferred Stock (or the holders of any class or series of capital stock ranking on a parity with the Unusual Preferred Stock as to distributions in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Unusual) the full amounts to which they shall be entitled, such holders shall share ratably in any distribution of assets in accordance with the sums which would be payable on such distribution if all sums payable thereon were paid in full.

At no time may all or a portion of the Unusual Preferred Stock be converted if the number of shares of common stock to be issued pursuant to such conversion would exceed, when aggregated with all other shares of Unusual common stock owned by the holder at such time, the number of shares of common stock which would result in the holder beneficially owning more than 4.99% of all of the common stock outstanding at such time; provided, however, that upon the holder providing Unusual with sixty-one (61) days' advance notice that the holder would like to waive this paragraph with regard to any or all shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Unusual Preferred Stock, this paragraph will be of no force or effect with regard to all or a portion of the Unusual Preferred Stock referenced in the 4.99% waiver. Following waiver, at no time may all or a portion of the Unusual Preferred Stock be converted if the number of shares of common stock to be issued pursuant to such conversion, when aggregated with all other shares of common stock owned by the holder at such time, would result in the holder beneficially owning in excess of 9.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock outstanding at such time.

Unusual has agreed to file a "resale" registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the Common Stock underlying the Unusual Preferred Stock upon Red Cat's written request made following 90 days after the effective date of any underwritten public offering by Unusual (including the Unusual IPO) and a piggy-back registration statement whenever Unusual shall file a registration statement for its own account or the account of other security holders (other than the Unusual IPO). Unusual has agreed to use its best efforts to have the registration statement filed and declared effective.

The Registration Rights Agreement

The following discussion sets forth the material terms of Unusual's Registration Rights Agreement to be issued to the Company pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex E to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read Annex E carefully and in its entirety.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that subject to the terms and conditions thereof, Unusual will register for resale, pursuant to a registration statement filed pursuant to the Securities Act, shares of Unusual's common stock issuable to Red Cat upon conversion of the Unusual Note and the Unusual , including any accrued and unpaid interest and dividends thereon. The parties agreed following execution of the Share Purchase Agreement and in response to comments from the staff of the SEC to eliminate from the Unusual IPO registration statement shares of Unusual common stock issuable under the Unusual Note, and instead to include such shares of common stock as registerable securities under the Registration Rights Agreement. The Registration Rights Agreements provides that as soon as practicable following Red Cat's written request, Unusual, shall use its best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of the Registrable Securities of Red Cat which Unusual has been requested to register.

In connection with any registration, Unusual shall be obligated to pay all costs and expenses incident to the performance of Unusual's obligations and registration, other than discounts and commissions on sale incurred by Red Cat.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that in the event of any registration under the agreement, Unusual shall indemnify and hold harmless Red Cat from and against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which Red Cat may become subject insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement under which such securities were registered under the Securities Act, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any document incident to registration or qualification of any Registrable Securities, or which arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or, with respect to any prospectus, necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or any violation by Unusual of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or state securities or blue sky laws applicable to Unusual and relating to action or inaction required of Unusual in connection with such registration or qualification under the Securities Act or such state securities or blue sky laws. If Unusual fails to defend Red Cat as required, it shall reimburse (after receipt of appropriate documentation) Red Cat for any legal or any other out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that Unusual shall not be liable to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon (i) an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in said registration statement, said preliminary prospectus, said prospectus, or said amendment or supplement or any document incident to registration or qualification of any Registrable Securities in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Unusual by Red Cat specifically for use in the preparation thereof or information omitted to be furnished by Red Cat or (ii) any act or failure to act of Red Cat including the failure of Red Cat to deliver a prospectus as required by the Securities Act.

The final purchase consideration paid by UM could differ significantly from the amounts presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. Adjustments related to the final amounts of working capital on the closing date could result in a material change in the amount of consideration payable by UM. If there was an Estimated Working Capital Excess Amount or an Estimated Working Capital Deficiency Amount at the Closing, then the aggregate Consideration shall be adjusted upward or downward dollar-for-dollar, as appropriate. If there is an Estimated Working Capital Excess Amount, the amount shall be paid to Red Cat as additional cash Consideration at the Closing, unless Red Cat agrees to payment terms for current assets such as inventory. Working capital balances can fluctuate from period to period and were unusually high as of the October 31, 2022 date of the pro-forma balance sheet. This higher than normal level was primarily attributable to inventory deposits and purchases, primarily related to the supply chain challenges of securing inventory on a timely basis. These challenges are beginning to ease and the Company expects that working capital balances will be lower on the date of the closing of the transaction. Prior to closing the transaction, Red Cat plans to capitalize, as an investment in the Target Companies, any amounts owed by the Target Companies such that the balance owed at closing shall be zero. If there is an Estimated Working Capital Deficiency Amount, the amount shall first be credited to the Unusual Note amount and any additional amount applied as a reduction in the cash consideration.

As a result of the foregoing, the pro forma adjustments are preliminary and are subject to change as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. The preliminary pro forma adjustments have been made solely for the purpose of providing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

Note 1. Description of Transaction and Basis of Presentation

Description of Transaction

On November 21, 2022, the Company entered into a Share Purchase Agreement related to the sale by the Company of the Target Companies to Unusual Machines. The parties to the agreement include (i) the Company, as seller, (ii) Unusual, as purchaser, and (iii) Jeffrey Thompson, the Principal Stockholder of the Company who is also a significant stockholder of Unusual.

The total purchase price of $18 million consists of (i) $5.0 million in cash, subject to adjustment based on the working capital balances of the Target Companies on the closing date, (ii) $2.5 million in the form of the Unusual Note, and (iii) $10.5 million shares of the Unusual Preferred Stock. The Unusual Note and the Unusual Preferred Stock will be convertible into common stock of Unusual at the lesser of $4.00 per share or the initial public offering price of UM. The Unusual Note and the Unusual Preferred Stock will include anti-dilution protection if UM issues common stock, or securities convertible into common stock, at an effective price lower than the applicable conversion price.

The closing of the SPA is subject to customary closing conditions which include shareholder approval by a majority of the disinterested shareholders of the Company. The Principal Stockholder, who holds approximately 22% of the voting power of the Company, shall abstain from the vote on approval of the SPA. On November 21, 2022, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the SPA. In addition, closing of the SPA is subject to successful completion of an initial public offering (the "IPO") by UM in the minimum amount of $15 million, and the listing of UM's common stock on NASDAQ.

Basis of Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been prepared using Red Cat's historical annual and interim consolidated financial statements, which were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Note 2. Accounting Policy Adjustments

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been compiled in a manner consistent with the accounting policies utilized by Red Cat.

Note 3. Preliminary Sales Price Allocation and Gain on Sale

The following is a preliminary allocation of the sales price to each of the Consumer businesses, and a preliminary estimate of the Gain on Sale:

	Fat Shark	Rotor Riot	Total
Total Sales Price	$ 13,000,000	$ 5,000,000	$ 18,000,000
Cost Basis
Original acquisition cost	8,354,076	1,995,114	10,349,190
Additional investment	6,532,264	3,465,593	9,997,857
Working capital adjustment	(3,551,456)	(946,095)	(4,497,551)
Total cost basis	11,334,884	4,514,612	15,849,496

The final acquisition accounting adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments included herein.

Note 4. Transaction Accounting Adjustments to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet

- Reflects transaction consideration including (i) cash payment of $5.0 million, (ii) note agreement for $2.5 million, and (iii) shares of Series A Preferred Stock with a value of $10.5 million;
- Represents a preliminary working capital adjustment of $4,497,551 as of October 31, 2022, of which $3,551,456 and $946,095 related to Fat Shark and Rotor Riot, respectively. Inventory, including deposits with purchase orders, represented $4,369,447, or 97% of the total preliminary adjustment. Inventory deposits of Fat Shark totaled $2,431,723 at October 31, 2022 and were placed with its manufacturer based in China. This high deposit balance reflects continuing challenges with the supply chain in sourcing components and expected higher demand associated with the launch of the Company's newest product. Inventory levels at Fat Shark reflect higher stocking levels for its new product and inventory levels at Rotor Riot were increased to support higher sales associated with recent marketing initiatives. Fat Shark plans to place orders funded by its deposits and expects that the deposit balance may decrease steadily through the closing date, as will inventory balances as the product cycle for its newest product matures. In summary, working capital balances at October 31, 2022 were unusually high and are expected to be lower at closing, especially as customer deposits are applied to orders and inventory levels stabilize. The Company has agreed to work with the Buyer to optimize inventory balances at closing and the working capital adjustment calculation may differ from that provided in the pro forma financials.
- Relates to the elimination of other asset and liability balances associated with the transaction, including (i) funding balances due to Parent, (ii) intangible assets recognized in connection with the acquisition of Fat Shark and Rotor Riot, and (iii) miscellaneous assets and liabilities included in the sale of the Consumer business.

D) Reflects a preliminary estimate of the gain on sale.

Note 5. Transaction Accounting Adjustments to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statements of Operations

E) Reflects intercompany sales between Fat Shark and Rotor Riot that were eliminated in Red Cat's consolidated amounts.

(i) (A) any and all actions, suits, proceedings, investigations, demands, liabilities, damages, claims, deficiencies, fines, penalties, interest, assessments, judgments, losses, Taxes, costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel (collectively, the “Indemnified Losses”) arising from or in connection with any breach or violation of any of the representations and warranties of Red Cat, contained in this Agreement or (B) any and all Indemnified Losses arising from or in connection with any breach or violation of the covenants or agreements exclusively of Red Cat contained in this Agreement (in each case, other than in respect of Section 5.21 or any breach or violation of, or failure to fully perform, any covenant, agreement, undertaking or obligation in Article IX, it being understood that the sole remedy for any such breach, violation or failure shall be pursuant to Article IX); and

(ii) any and all Indemnified Losses not reserved for on the Closing Trial Balance related to the business or operations of any Target Company prior to the Closing Date.

(b) Indemnification by the Principal Stockholder. The Principal Stockholder agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Unusual Indemnitees from, against and in respect of, the full amount of:

(i) (A) any and all Indemnified Losses arising from or in connection with any breach or violation of any of the representations and warranties of Red Cat or the Principal Stockholder contained in this Agreement or (B) any and all Indemnified Losses arising from or in connection with any breach or violation of the covenants or agreements of Red Cat or the Principal Stockholder contained in this Agreement (in each case, other than in respect of Section 5.21 or any breach or violation of, or failure to fully perform, any covenant, agreement, undertaking or obligation in Article IX, it being understood that the sole remedy for any such breach, violation or failure shall be pursuant to Article IX);

(ii) any and all Indemnified Losses related to or arising from claims for breach of contract existing on or prior to the Closing Date, and/or which are brought after the Closing Date for acts and omissions of any Target Company or Red Cat, which occurred prior to the Closing Date;

(v) any and all Indemnified Losses not reserved for on the Closing Trial Balance related to the business or operations of any Target Company prior to the Closing Date.

(d) Indemnification Procedure. Any Party seeking indemnification under this Agreement (the “INDEMNIFIED PARTY”) will give prompt written notice to the Party or Parties against whom indemnity is sought (the “Indemnifying Party”) of any Indemnified Losses which it discovers or of which it receives notice after the Closing, stating the nature, basis (including the section of this Agreement that has been or will be breached, if any, and the facts giving rise to the claim that a breach has or will occur), and (to the extent known) amount thereof; provided, however, that no delay on the part of Indemnified Party in notifying any Indemnifying Party shall relieve the Indemnifying Party from any liability hereunder unless (and then solely to the extent) the Indemnifying Party is prejudiced by such delay.

(e) Indemnification Procedure as to Third Party Claims.

(i) Promptly after any Indemnified Party obtains knowledge of the commencement of any third party claim, action, suit or proceeding or of the occurrence of any event or the existence of any state of facts which may become the basis of a third party claim (any such claim, action, suit or proceeding or event or state of facts being hereinafter referred to in this Section 7.03 as a “Claim”), in respect of which an Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party of such Claim in writing; provided, however, that any failure to give notice (A) will not waive any rights of the Indemnified Party except to the extent that the rights of the Indemnifying Party are actually prejudiced thereby and (B) will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations as hereinafter provided in this Section 7.03 after such notice is given. With respect to any Claim as to which such notice is given by the Indemnified Party to the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnifying Party will, subject to the provisions of Section 7.03(e)(ii), assume the defense or otherwise settle such Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party and experienced in the conduct of Claims of that nature at the Indemnifying Party’s sole risk and expense, provided, however, that the Indemnified Party: (1) shall be permitted to join the defense and settlement of such Claim and to employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying Party, and at the Indemnified Party’s own expense; (2) shall cooperate fully with the Indemnifying Party in the defense and any settlement of such Claim in any manner reasonably requested by the Indemnifying Party; and (3) shall not compromise or settle any such Claim without the prior written approval of the Indemnifying Party.

(ii) If (A) the Indemnifying Party fails to assume the defense of such Claim or, having assumed the defense and settlement of such Claim, fails reasonably to contest such Claim in good faith, or (B) the remedy sought by the claimant with respect to such Claim is not solely for money damages, the Indemnified Party, without waiving its right to indemnification, may, but is not required to, assume the defense and settlement of such Claim, provided, however, that (1) the Indemnifying Party shall be permitted to join in the defense and settlement of such Claim and to employ counsel at its own expense, (2) the Indemnifying Party shall cooperate with the Indemnified Party in the defense and settlement of such Claim in any manner reasonably requested by the Indemnified Party, and (3) the Indemnified Party shall not settle such Claim without the written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(iii) As used in this Section 7.03, the terms Indemnified Party and/or Indemnifying Party shall be deemed to include the plural thereof where the rights or obligations of more than one Indemnified Party and/or Indemnifying Party may be involved.

(f) Tax-free Indemnification Payments. All sums payable by an Indemnifying Party as indemnification under this Section 7.03 shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings (including any Taxes or governmental charges of any nature) unless the deduction or withholding is required by Law, in which event or in the event the Indemnified Party shall incur any Liability for Taxes chargeable or assessable in respect of any such payment, the Indemnifying Party shall pay such additional amounts as shall be required to cause the net amount received by the Indemnified Party to equal the full amount which would otherwise have been received by it had no such deduction or withholding been made or no such Liability for Taxes been incurred.

(g) No Contribution. The obligations of Red Cat, or the Principal Stockholder, to indemnify Unusual pursuant to the terms of this Agreement are several and not joint obligations of Red Cat and the Principal Stockholder, respectively, subject to the limitations set forth herein. Red Cat and the Principal Stockholder hereby waive any right to seek or obtain indemnification or contribution from the Target Companies or from each other for Indemnified Losses as a result of any breach by Red Cat or the Principal Stockholder of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement.

Section 7.04 Limitations on Liabilities.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall the aggregate sums payable under Section 7.03 (other than sums payable as a result of fraud) exceed (i) with respect to Red Cat or the Principal Stockholder the Escrow Shares under the Escrow Agreement and the aggregate liability for Unusual exceed $1.8 million. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Escrow Shares shall be the sole and exclusive recourse by Unusual for any breaches of the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement by Red Cat and/or the Principal Stockholder and for any Red Cat or Principal Stockholder Indemnified Losses. The Principal Stockholder shall have no right of indemnification or contribution against Red Cat for any claims or breaches of the representations and warranties of Red Cat set forth herein or any Red Cat Indemnified Losses.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no Party (including Unusual) shall be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless any other under Section 7.04 for breaches of representations and warranties unless and until all Indemnified Losses in respect of which such Party is obligated to provide indemnification exceed $250,000 (the “Basket Amount”) following which (subject to the provisions of this Section 7.04) such Party shall be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless, the other Party for all such Indemnified Losses (not merely the amount by which the Indemnified Losses exceed the Basket Amount); provided, however the Basket Amount shall not apply to indemnity obligations for Indemnified Losses arising as a result of fraud if determined by a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction or breaches of the representations and warranties in Sections 5.07, 5.08, and 5.27.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, none of the limitations on indemnification set forth in this Section 7.04 shall apply to matters relating to fraud if determined by a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 8.07 No Solicitation.

(a) Takeover Proposal. Neither Red Cat, on the one hand, nor Unusual, on the other hand, shall, and each shall cause their respective Representatives, Subsidiaries or Subsidiaries' Representatives as applicable, not to, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate, or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any Takeover Proposal or the making of any proposal that could reasonably be expected to lead to any Takeover Proposal, or, subject to Section 8.07(b): (i) conduct or engage in any discussions or negotiations with, disclose any non-public information relating to Red Cat or Unusual or any of their respective Subsidiaries, as applicable, to, afford access to the business, properties, assets, books, or records of Red Cat or Unusual or any of their respective Subsidiaries to, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate, or encourage any effort by, any third party (or its potential sources of financing) that is seeking to make, or has made, any Takeover Proposal; (ii) except where the Red Cat Board or Unusual Board, as applicable, makes a good faith determination, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to do so would cause it to be in breach of its fiduciary duties, amend or grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of Red Cat or Unusual, as applicable, or any of their respective Subsidiaries to, amend or grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of Red Cat or Unusual, as applicable, or any of their respective Subsidiaries; or (iii) enter into any Agreement in Principle, Letter of Intent, Term Sheet, Acquisition Agreement, Merger Agreement, Option Agreement, Joint Venture Agreement, Partnership Agreement, or other Target Company Contract relating to any Takeover Proposal (each, an "Acquisition Agreement"). Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, the Red Cat Board shall not effect a Red Cat Adverse Recommendation Change ("RED CAT ADVERSE RECOMMENDATION CHANGE"). Red Cat on the one hand, and Unusual, on the other hand, shall, and shall cause their respective Representatives, Subsidiaries and Subsidiaries' Representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated any and all existing activities, discussions, or negotiations, if any, with any third party conducted prior to the Effective Date with respect to any Takeover Proposal and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any such third party (or its agents or advisors) in possession of non-public information in respect of Red Cat or Unusual, as applicable, and any of their respective Subsidiaries that was furnished by or on behalf of such Party or its respective Subsidiaries to return or destroy (and confirm destruction of) all such information. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that any violation of or the taking of actions inconsistent with the restrictions set forth in this Section 8.07 by any Representative of Red Cat or its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, or Unusual or its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, whether or not such Representative is purporting to act on behalf of the applicable Party or any of its Subsidiaries, shall be deemed to be a breach of this 8.07 by the applicable Party.

Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Red Cat Board from disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to a Takeover Proposal, if the Party determines, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to disclose such position could cause Red Cat Board to be in breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(c) Notification to the Other Party. The Red Cat Board shall not take any of the actions referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of Section 8.07(b) unless Red Cat shall have delivered to Unusual a prior written notice advising Unusual that it intends to take such action. Red Cat shall notify Unusual promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after it obtains Knowledge of the receipt by Red Cat (or any of its Representatives) of any Takeover Proposal, any inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Takeover Proposal, any request for non-public information relating to Red Cat or any of its Subsidiaries or for access to the business, properties, assets, books, or records of Red Cat or any of its Subsidiaries by any third party. In such notice, Red Cat shall identify the third party making, and details of the material terms and conditions of, any such Takeover Proposal, indication or request, including any proposed financing. Red Cat shall keep Unusual fully informed, on a current basis, of the status and material terms of any such Takeover Proposal, indication or request, including any material amendments or proposed amendments as to price, proposed financing, and other material terms thereof. (d) No Litigation. No Legal Proceedings shall be pending or threatened by or before any Governmental Authority; no Laws shall have been enacted after the date of this Agreement, and no judicial or administrative decision shall have been rendered; in each case, which enjoins, prohibits or materially restricts, or seeks to enjoin, prohibit or materially restrict, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Officers Certificate. Red Cat will have received a certificate, signed by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Unusual, certifying in such detail as Red Cat may reasonable request, that the conditions specified in this Section 10.03 have been fulfilled.

SECTION 10.04 FRUSTRATION OF CLOSING CONDITIONS Neither Red Cat, the Target Companies, the Principal Stockholder nor Unusual may rely, as a basis for not consummating the Purchase and Sale or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, on the failure of any condition set forth in Sections 10.01, 10.02, or 10.03, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such Party's breach in any material respect of any provision of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI TERMINATION, AMENDMENT, AND WAIVER

Section 11.01 TERMINATION BY MUTUAL CONSENT. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing (whether before or after the receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote) by the mutual written consent of Unusual and Red Cat.

SECTION 11.02 TERMINATION BY EITHER RED CAT OR UNUSUAL. This Agreement may be terminated by either Red Cat or Unusual at any time prior to the Closing (whether before or after the receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote):

(a) if the Purchase and Sale has not been consummated on or before March 30, 2023 (the "End Date"); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.02 shall not be available to any Party whose breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement set forth in this Agreement has been the principal cause of, or that resulted in, the failure of the Purchase and Sale to be consummated on or before the End Date;

(b) if any Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced, or entered any Law or Order making illegal, or permanently enjoining, the consummation of the Purchase and Sale, or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and such Law or Order shall have become final and non-appealable, or Section 11.02(b);

(c) if the Purchase and Sale has been submitted to the stockholders of Red Cat for approval at a duly convened Red Cat Stockholders Meeting and the Requisite Red Cat Vote shall not have been obtained at such meeting (unless such Red Cat Stockholders Meeting has been adjourned or postponed, in which case at the final adjournment or postponement thereof); or

(d) if any Closing Condition set forth in Section 10.01 shall not be satisfied by Unusual.

Section 11.03 Termination by Red Cat. This Agreement may be terminated by the Red Cat at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) if prior to the receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote at the Red Cat Stockholders Meeting or any adjournment thereof, the disinterested Red Cat stockholders fail to approve this Agreement by a majority vote or the Red Cat Board shall have accepted a Superior Proposal and entered into an Acquisition Agreement with a third party;

(b) if Unusual shall have breached or failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants and agreements set forth in Article VIII; or

(c) if there shall have been a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement on the part of Unusual set forth in this Agreement such that the conditions to the Closing of the Purchase and Sale set forth in Section 10.03(a) or Section 10.03(b), as applicable, would not be satisfied and, in either such case, such breach is incapable of being cured by the End Date; provided, that Red Cat shall have given Unusual at least 30 days written notice prior to such termination stating Red Cat's intention to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.03(c); provided further, that Red Cat shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.03 if Red Cat is then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or obligation hereunder that would cause any condition set forth in Sections 10.02(a) or 10.02(b) not to be satisfied.

Section 11.04 Termination by Unusual. This Agreement may be terminated by Unusual at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) if prior to the receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote at the Red Cat Stockholders Meeting, or any adjournment thereof the disinterested Red Cat stockholders fail to approve this Agreement by a majority vote or the Red Cat Board shall have accepted a Superior Proposal and entered into an Acquisition Agreement with a third party;

(b) if Red Cat shall have breached or failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants and agreements set forth in Article VIII; or

(c) if there shall have been a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement on the part of Red Cat, the Target Companies or the Principal Stockholder set forth in this Agreement such that the conditions to the Closing of the Purchase and Sale set forth in Section 10.02(a) or 10.02(b), as applicable, would not be satisfied and, in either such case, such breach is incapable of being cured by the End Date; provided, that Unusual shall have given Red Cat, the Target Companies and the Principal Stockholder, as applicable, at least 30 days written notice prior to such termination stating Unusual's intention to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.04; provided further, that Unusual shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.04 if Unusual is then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or obligation hereunder that would cause any condition set forth in Section 10.02(a) or Section 10.02(b) not to be satisfied.

SECTION 11.05 NOTICE OF TERMINATION; EFFECT OF TERMINATION The Party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Article X (other than pursuant to Section 10.01) shall deliver written notice of such termination to each other Party hereto specifying with particularity the reason for such termination, and any such termination in accordance with this Section 10.05 shall be effective immediately upon delivery of such written notice to the other Party or upon expiration of the 30-day notice, as the case may be. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Article X, it will become void and of no further force and effect, with no Liability on the part of any Party to this Agreement (or any stockholder, director, officer, employee, agent, or Representative of such Party) to any other Party hereto, except: (a) with respect to Section 8.05(b), this Section 11.05, Section 11.06, Section 11.07 and Article XII (and any related definitions contained in any such Sections or Article), which shall remain in full force and effect; and (b) with respect to any Liabilities incurred or suffered by a Party, to the extent such Liabilities were the result of fraud or the breach by another Party of any of its representations, warranties, covenants, or other agreements set forth in this Agreement.

SECTION 11.06 Amendment. At any time prior to the Closing, this Agreement may be amended or supplemented in any and all respects, whether before or after receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote, by written agreement signed by each of the Parties hereto; provided, however, that: (a) following the receipt of the Requisite Red Cat Vote, there shall be no amendment or supplement to the provisions of this Agreement which by Law would require further approval by the holders of Red Cat capital stock without such approval.

SECTION 11.07 TERMINATION FEE. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Red Cat accepts an Acquisition Proposal relating to a third party obtaining Control of the Target Companies collectively, an “ACQUISITION PROPOSAL”), then Red Cat upon closing the Acquisition Proposal shall pay Unusual a non-refundable fee in the amount of $500,000 in cash or shares of Red Cat common stock if elected by Red Cat, at the highest VWAP prior to the date of issuance payable within 5 days. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, the term “obtaining control” or “acquiring control” (collectively “Control”) shall mean one or more Persons obtaining or acquiring more than 50.1% of the voting power of the Target Companies in the case of Red Cat. In no event shall a Termination Fee be payable if the Purchase and Sale is not consummated by the End Date (unless such End Date is extended by the written agreement of the Parties). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Unusual: (a) terminates this Agreement unilaterally without cause (it being understood that the failure to consummate the Offering or the failure to obtain a listing with Nasdaq shall not be deemed to be a termination for cause); and (b) consummates a public offering within 12 months of termination of this Agreement, Unusual shall pay Red Cat a non-refundable fee in the amount of $500,000 in cash or shares of Unusual if Unusual has a class of its securities listed for trading on a national securities exchange if elected by Unusual at the highest VWAP prior to the date of issuance, payable within 5 days after the consummation of any such alternative transaction.

Section 11.08 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Closing, Red Cat, on the one hand, or Unusual, on the other hand, may: (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the other Party(ies); (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other Party(ies) contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered under this Agreement; or (c) unless prohibited by applicable Law, waive compliance with any of the covenants, agreements, or conditions contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a Party to any extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by such Party. The failure of any Party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise will not constitute a waiver of such rights.

ARTICLE XII MISCELLANEOUS

Section 12.01 Disclosure Schedules.

(a) The inclusion of any information in the Disclosure Schedules (the “Schedules”) shall not be deemed an admission or acknowledgment that such information is required to be listed in the Schedules or that such items are material. The Schedules are arranged in Sections corresponding to the Sections contained in this Agreement merely for convenience, and the disclosure of an item in one Section of the Schedules as an exception to a particular covenant, agreement, representation or warranty shall be deemed adequately disclosed as an exception with respect to all other covenants, agreements, representations and warranties to the extent that the relevance of such item to such other covenants, agreements, representations or warranties is reasonably apparent on its face without independent knowledge of the reader, notwithstanding the presence or absence of an appropriate cross-reference thereto.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, from time-to-time prior to the Closing, each Party may at its option supplement or amend and deliver updates to any Schedule that has been rendered inaccurate or incomplete since the Effective Date solely as a result of matters or events first occurring after the Effective Date as necessary to complete or correct any information in such Schedules. The updating Party(ies) shall provide the other Party(ies) with any such supplement or amendment by written notice (each, a “SCHEDULE UPDATE”). If the matters identified in a Schedule Update, individually or collectively with matters identified in any other Schedule Update, constitute a Material Adverse Effect on such Party, then the other Party(ies) may at any time within three Business Days following their receipt of any such Schedule Update, elect to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Article X. If the receiving Party does not so timely elect (subject to the preceding sentence with respect to the cumulative effect of matters identified in all Schedule Updates, whether prior to or after the Schedule Update in question), the Schedule Update shall be deemed to have amended the appropriate Schedule or Schedules as of the Effective Date, and shall be deemed to have qualified the applicable representations and warranties contained in this Agreement as of the Effective Date, and to have cured any misrepresentation or breach of warranty that otherwise might have existed hereunder by reason of the existence of such matter.

Section 12.02 Interpretation; Construction.

(a) The Recitals, each Exhibit and the Schedules are hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement by reference. The headings herein are for convenience of reference only, do not constitute part of this Agreement and shall not be deemed to limit or otherwise affect any of the provisions hereof. Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein: (i) to “Article(s)”, “Section(s)”, “Exhibit(s)” and “Schedules” refer to the corresponding Article(s), Section(s), Exhibit(s) and Schedule(s) of or to this Agreement; (ii) to “Schedule(s)” refer to the corresponding Schedule(s) of the Disclosure Schedules; (iii) to an agreement, instrument, or other document means such agreement, instrument, or other document as amended, supplemented, and modified from time-to-time to the extent permitted by the provisions thereof; and (iv) to a statute means such statute as amended from time-to-time and includes any successor legislation thereto and any regulations promulgated thereunder. Whenever the words “include,” “includes,” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation,” and the word “or” is not exclusive. The word “extent” in the phrase “to the extent” means the degree to which a subject or other thing extends, and does not simply mean “if.” A reference in this Agreement to $ or dollars is to U.S. dollars. The definitions of terms herein shall apply equally to the singular and plural forms of the terms defined. The words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby,” “hereto,” and “hereunder” and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. References to “this Agreement” shall include the Schedules.

(b) The Parties have participated jointly in negotiating and drafting this Agreement. In the event that an ambiguity or a question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement.

SECTION 12.03 Survival. The representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered under this Agreement will survive the Closing and expire at the various time referenced in Section 7.01. This Section 12.03 does not limit any covenant or agreement of the Parties contained in this Agreement which, by its terms, contemplates performance after the Closing.

SECTION 12.04 Governing Law. This Agreement and all Legal Proceedings (whether based on contract, tort, or statute) arising out of, relating to, or in connection with this Agreement or the actions of any of the Parties hereto in the negotiation, administration, performance, or enforcement hereof, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal Laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of Laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of New York.

SECTION 12.05 SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION. Each of the Parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any Legal Proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by any other Party hereto or its successors or assigns shall be brought and determined exclusively in the federal or state court located in New York County, New York. Each of the Parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such Legal Proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any Legal Proceeding relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court or tribunal other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the Parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim, or otherwise, in any Legal Proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder: (a) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts for any reason; (b) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise); and (c) to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable Law, any claim that (i) the suit, action, or proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (ii) the venue of such suit, action, or proceeding is improper, or (iii) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

Section 12.06 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER IN THE EVENT OF A LEGAL ACTION; (B) SUCH PARTY HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER; (C) SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY; AND (D) SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 11.06.

SECTION 12.07 Notices. All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given upon the earlier of actual receipt or (a) when delivered by hand providing proof of delivery; (b) when received by the addressee if sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier (receipt requested); or (c) on the date sent by email if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and on the next Business Day if sent after normal business hours of the recipient. In the event of any inconsistency between the statements in the body of this Agreement (other than an exception expressly set forth as such in the Schedules) or the Confidentiality Agreement, the statements in the body of this Agreement will control.

SECTION 12.09 NO THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES Except as provided in Section 8.10 hereof (which shall be to the benefit of the Persons referred to in such Section), this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties hereto and their permitted assigns and respective successors and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 12.10 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Neither Red Cat, the Target Companies nor the Principal Stockholder, on the one hand, nor Unusual on the other hand, may assign its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Party(ies). No assignment shall relieve the assigning Party of any of its obligations hereunder.

Section 12.12 Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any and all remedies expressly conferred upon a Party to this Agreement will be cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy contained in this Agreement, at Law, or in equity. The exercise by a Party to this Agreement of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise by it of any other remedy.

Section 12.13 Specific Performance.

(a) The Parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur if any provision of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions hereof, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at Law or in equity.

(b) Each Party further agrees that: (i) no such Party will oppose the granting of an injunction or specific performance as provided herein on the basis that the other Party has an adequate remedy at law has not been irreparably harmed or that an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity; (ii) no such Party will oppose the specific performance of the terms and provisions of this Agreement; and (iii) no other Party or any other Person shall be required to obtain, furnish, or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Agreement, and each Party irrevocably waives any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing, or posting of any such bond or similar instrument.

Section 12.14 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which will be one and the same agreement. This Agreement will become effective when each Party to this Agreement will have received counterparts signed by all of the other Parties.

Section 12.15 Other Agreements. For a period commencing with the Closing Date continuing for a period of 5 years, Unusual and the Target Companies shall execute and deliver a Non-Competition Agreement with Red Cat for 5 years in form and substance mutually acceptable to the Parties pursuant to which Unusual and the Target Companies shall agree to restrict its activities and shall not design, manufacture, market, import, build or sell any Group 1 or Group 2 UAV/drone to customers which are Governmental Authorities and/or any third-party intermediary such as contractors or Red Cat's to customers which are Governmental Authorities, without the prior written consent of Red Cat, and shall exclusively refer all such opportunities to Red Cat. (a) Voluntary Conversion. After the Original Issue Date until this Note is no longer outstanding, this Note shall be convertible, including any accrued and unpaid interest, in whole or in part, at any time, and from time to time, into shares of Common Stock at the option of the Holder (“Conversion”). The Holder shall effect conversions by delivering to the Company a Conversion Notice, the form of which is attached hereto as Annex A (each, a “Conversion Notice”), specifying therein the principal amount and interest on this Note to be converted and the date on which such conversion shall be effected (such date, the “Conversion Date”). If no Conversion Date is specified in a Conversion Notice, the Conversion Date shall be the date that such Conversion Notice is deemed delivered hereunder. No ink-original Conversion Notice shall be required, nor shall any medallion guarantee (or other type of guarantee or notarization) of any Conversion Notice form be required. To effect conversions hereunder, the Holder shall not be required to physically surrender this Note to the Company unless the entire principal amount of this Note, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, has been so converted. Conversions hereunder shall have the effect of lowering the outstanding principal amount of this Note in an amount equal to the applicable conversion. The Holder and the Company shall maintain records showing the principal amount(s) converted in each conversion, the date of each conversion, and the Conversion Price in effect at the time of each conversion. The Company may deliver an objection to any Conversion Notice within one Business Day of delivery of such Conversion Notice. In the event of any dispute or discrepancy, the records of the Holder shall be controlling and determinative in the absence of manifest error. THE HOLDER, AND ANY REGISTERED ASSIGNEE BY ACCEPTANCE OF THIS NOTE, ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT, BY REASON OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH, FOLLOWING CONVERSION OF A PORTION OF THIS NOTE, THE UNPAID AND UNCONVERTED PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF THIS NOTE may be less than the amount stated on the face hereof.

The number of Conversion Shares issuable upon a conversion hereunder shall be determined by the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the outstanding principal amount of this Note and accrued interest and other amounts due and owing under this Note to be converted by (y) the Conversion Price in effect at the time of such conversion.

(ii) Reserved.

(iii) Failure to Deliver Certificates. If, in the case of any Conversion Notice, such certificate or certificates are not delivered to or as directed by the applicable Holder by the Share Delivery Date, the Holder shall be entitled to elect by written notice to the Company at any time on or before its receipt of such certificate or certificates, to rescind such Conversion, in which event the Company shall promptly return to the Holder any original Note delivered to the Company and the Holder shall promptly return to the Company the Common Stock certificates issued to such Holder pursuant to the rescinded Conversion Notice.

(iv) Obligation Absolute; Partial Liquidated Damages. The Company’s obligations to issue and deliver the Conversion Shares upon conversion of this Note in accordance with the terms hereof is absolute and unconditional, irrespective of any action or inaction by the Holder to enforce the same, any waiver or consent with respect to any provision hereof, the recovery of any judgment against any Person or any action to enforce the same, or any setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, limitation or termination, or any breach or alleged breach by the Holder or any other Person of any obligation to the Company or any violation or alleged violation of law by the Holder or any other Person, and irrespective of any other circumstance which might otherwise limit such obligation of the Company to the Holder in connection with the issuance of such Conversion Shares; provided, however, that such delivery shall not operate as a waiver by the Company of any such action the Company may have against the Holder. In the event the Holder of this Note shall elect to convert any or all of the outstanding principal amount hereof, the Company may not refuse conversion based on any claim that the Holder or anyone associated or affiliated with the Holder has been engaged in any violation of law, agreement or for any other reason, unless an injunction from a court, on notice to Holder, restraining and or enjoining conversion of all or part of this Note shall have been sought and obtained, and the Company posts a surety bond for the benefit of the Holder in the amount of 150% of the outstanding principal amount of this Note, which is subject to the injunction, which bond shall remain in effect until the completion of arbitration/litigation of the underlying dispute and the proceeds of which shall be payable to the Holder to the extent it obtains judgment. In the absence of such injunction, the Company shall issue Conversion Shares. If the Company fails for any reason to deliver to the Holder such certificate or certificates pursuant to Section 4(d)(ii) by the Share Delivery Date, the Company shall pay to the Holder, in cash, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, for each $1,000 of principal amount being converted, $10 per Business Day (increasing to $20 per Business Day on the fifth Business Day after such Conversion Date) for each Business Day after such Share Delivery Date until such certificates are delivered or Holder rescinds such conversion. Nothing herein shall limit a Holder's right to pursue actual damages or declare an Event of Default pursuant to Section 7 hereof for the Company's failure to deliver Conversion Shares within the period specified herein and the Holder shall have the right to pursue all remedies available to it hereunder, at law or in equity including, without limitation, a decree of specific performance and/or injunctive relief. The exercise of any such rights shall not prohibit the Holder from seeking to enforce damages pursuant to any other Section hereof or under applicable law.

(v) Compensation for Buy-In on Failure to Timely Deliver Certificates Upon Conversion. In addition to any other rights available to the Holder, if the Company fails for any reason to deliver to the Holder such certificate or certificates by the Share Delivery Date pursuant to Section 4(d)(ii), and if after such Share Delivery Date the Holder is required by its brokerage firm to purchase (in an open market transaction or otherwise), or the Holder's brokerage firm otherwise purchases, shares of Common Stock to deliver in satisfaction of a sale by the Holder of the Conversion Shares which the Holder was entitled to receive upon the conversion relating to such Share Delivery Date (a "Buy-In"), then the Company shall (A) pay in cash to the Holder (in addition to any other remedies available to or elected by the Holder) the amount, if any, by which (x) the Holder's total purchase price (including any brokerage commissions) for the Common Stock so purchased exceeds (y) the product of (1) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock that the Holder was entitled to receive from the conversion at issue multiplied by (2) the actual sale price at which the sell order giving rise to such purchase obligation was executed (including any brokerage commissions) and (B) at the option of the Holder, either reissue (if surrendered) this Note in a principal amount equal to the principal amount of the attempted conversion (in which case such conversion shall be deemed rescinded) or deliver to the Holder the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been issued if the Company had timely complied with its delivery requirements under Section 4(d)(ii). For example, if the Holder purchases Common Stock having a total purchase price of $11,000 to cover a Buy-In with respect to an attempted conversion of this Note with respect to which the actual sale price of the Conversion Shares (including any brokerage commissions) giving rise to such purchase obligation was a total of $10,000 under clause (A) of the immediately preceding sentence, the Company shall be required to pay the Holder $1,000. The Holder shall provide the Company written notice indicating the amounts payable to the Holder in respect of the Buy-In and, upon request of the Company, evidence of the amount of such loss. Nothing herein shall limit a Holder's right to pursue any other remedies available to it hereunder, at law or in equity including, without limitation, a decree of specific performance and/or injunctive relief with respect to the Company's failure to timely deliver certificates representing shares of Common Stock upon conversion of this Note as required pursuant to the terms hereof.

(vi) Reservation of Shares Issuable Upon Conversion. The Company covenants that it will reserve and keep available out of its authorized and unissued shares of Common Stock for the purpose of issuances upon conversion of this Note (and other purposes further detailed in the Purchase Agreement), free from preemptive rights or any other actual contingent purchase rights of Persons other than the holder (and the other holders of the Notes), an amount of shares at least equal to the greater of: (i) one times the number of shares of Common Stock necessary to allow the Holder to convert this Note and accrued interest thereon to maturity in full; or (ii) 19.9% of the current shares of Common Stock outstanding, if such restriction is required under Rule 5635 of the Nasdaq listing rules. The Company covenants that all shares of Common Stock that shall be so issuable shall, upon issue, be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

(vii) Fractional Shares. No fractional shares or scrip representing fractional shares shall be issued upon the conversion of this Note. As to any fraction of a share which the Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such conversion, the Company shall at its election, either pay a cash adjustment in respect of such final fraction in an amount equal to such fraction multiplied by the Conversion Price or round up to the next whole share.

(viii) Transfer Taxes and Expenses. The issuance of certificates for shares of the Common Stock on conversion of this Note shall be made without charge to the Holder hereof for any documentary stamp or similar taxes that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of such certificates, provided that, the Company shall not be required to pay any tax that may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issuance and delivery of any such certificate upon conversion in a name other than that of the Holder of this Note so converted and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver such certificates unless or until the Person or Persons requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid.

(ix) Reserved.

(e) Holder's Conversion Limitations. The Company shall not affect any conversion of this Note, and a Holder shall not have the right to convert any portion of this Note, to the extent that after giving effect to the conversion set forth on the applicable Conversion Notice, the Holder (together with the Holder's Affiliates, and any Persons acting as a group together with the Holder or any of the Holder's Affiliates) would beneficially own in excess of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation (as defined below). For purposes of the foregoing sentence, the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the Holder and its Affiliates shall include the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note with respect to which such determination is being made, but shall exclude the number of shares of Common Stock which are issuable upon (i) conversion of the remaining, unconverted principal amount of this Note beneficially owned by the Holder or any of its Affiliates and (ii) exercise or conversion of the unexercised or unconverted portion of any other securities of the Company subject to a limitation on conversion or exercise analogous to the limitation contained herein (including, without limitation, any other Notes) beneficially owned by the Holder or any of its Affiliates. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, for purposes of this Section 4(e), beneficial ownership shall be calculated in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. To the extent that the limitation contained in this Section 4(e) applies, the determination of whether this Note is convertible (in relation to other securities owned by the Holder together with any Affiliates) and of which principal amount of this Note is convertible shall be in the sole discretion of the Holder, and the submission of a Conversion Notice shall be deemed to be the Holder's determination of whether this Note may be converted (in relation to other securities owned by the Holder together with any Affiliates) and which principal amount of this Note is convertible, in each case subject to the Beneficial Ownership Limitation. To ensure compliance with this restriction, the Holder will be deemed to represent to the Company each time it delivers a Conversion Notice that such Conversion Notice has not violated the restrictions set forth in this paragraph and the Company shall have no obligation to verify or confirm the accuracy of such determination. In addition, a determination as to any group status as contemplated above shall be determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. For purposes of this Section 4(e), in determining the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Holder may rely on the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock as stated in the most recent of the following: (i) the Company's most recent periodic or annual report filed with the SEC, if any, as the case may be, (ii) a more recent public announcement by the Company, or (iii) a more recent written notice by the Company setting forth the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding. Upon the written or oral request of a Holder, the Company shall within two Business Days confirm orally and in writing to the Holder the number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding. In any case, the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be determined after giving effect to the conversion or exercise of securities of the Company, including this Note, by the Holder or its Affiliates since the date as of which such number of outstanding shares of Common Stock was reported. The "Beneficial Ownership Limitation" shall be 4.99% of the number of shares of the Common Stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note held by the Holder. The Holder, upon not less than 61 days' prior notice to the Company, may increase the Beneficial Ownership Limitation provisions of this Section 4(e) solely with respect to the Holder's Note. Any such increase or decrease will not be effective until the 61st day after such notice is delivered to the Company. The Holder may also decrease the Beneficial Ownership Limitation provisions of this Section 4(e) solely with respect to the Holder's Note at any time, which decrease shall be effective immediately upon delivery of notice to the Company. The Beneficial Ownership Limitation provisions of this paragraph shall be construed and implemented in a manner otherwise than in strict conformity with the terms of this Section 4(e) to correct this paragraph (or any portion hereof) which may be defective or inconsistent with the intended Beneficial Ownership Limitation contained herein or to make changes or supplements necessary or desirable to properly give effect to such limitation. The limitations contained in this paragraph shall apply to a successor holder of this Note.

Section 5. Certain Adjustments.

(a) Stock Dividends and Stock Splits. If the Company, at any time while this Note is outstanding: (i) pays a stock dividend or otherwise makes a distribution or distributions payable in shares of Common Stock on shares of Common Stock or any Common Stock Equivalents (which, for avoidance of doubt, shall not include any shares of Common Stock issued by the Company upon conversion of, or payment of interest on, the Notes or pursuant to any of the other Transaction Documents), (ii) subdivides outstanding shares of Common Stock into a larger number of shares, (iii) combines (including by way of a reverse stock split) outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares or (iv) issues, in the event of a reclassification of shares of the Common Stock, any shares of capital stock of the Company, then the Conversion Price shall be multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock (excluding any treasury shares of the Company) outstanding immediately before such event, and of which the denominator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after such event. Any adjustment made pursuant to this Section shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive such dividend or distribution and shall become effective immediately after the effective date in the case of a subdivision, combination or re-classification.

(b) Subsequent Equity Sales. If, at any time, for so long as the Note or any amounts accrued and payable thereunder remain outstanding, the Company or any Subsidiary, as applicable, sells or grants any option to purchase or sells or grants any right to reprice, or otherwise disposes of or issues, any Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents entitling any Person to acquire shares of Common Stock at an effective price per share that is lower than the Conversion Price then in effect (such lower price, the "Base Conversion Price" and each such issuance a "Dilutive Issuance"), then the Conversion Price shall be immediately reduced to equal the Base Conversion Price. Such adjustment shall be made whenever such Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents are issued.

If the price per share for which shares of Common Stock are sold, or may be issuable pursuant to any such Common Stock Equivalent, is less than the Conversion Price then in effect, or if, after any such issuance of Common Stock Equivalents, the price per share for which shares of Common Stock may be issuable thereafter is amended or adjusted, and such price as so amended shall be less than the Conversion Price in effect at the time of such amendment or adjustment, then the Conversion Price shall be adjusted upon each such issuance or amendment as provided in this Section 5(b). In case any Common Stock Equivalent is issued in connection with the issue or sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integrated transaction, (x) the Common Stock Equivalents will be deemed to have been issued for the Option Value of such Common Stock Equivalents and (y) the other securities issued or sold in such integrated transaction shall be deemed to have been issued or sold for the difference of (I) the aggregate consideration received by the Company less any consideration paid or payable by the Company pursuant to the terms of such other securities of the Company, less (II) the Option Value. If any shares of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents are issued or sold or deemed to have been issued or sold for cash, the amount of such consideration received by the Company will be deemed to be the net amount received by the Company therefor. If any shares of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents are issued or sold for a consideration other than cash, the amount of such consideration received by the Company will be the fair value of such consideration, except where such consideration consists of publicly traded securities, in which case the amount of consideration received by the Company will be the VWAP of such public traded securities on the date of receipt. If any shares of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents are issued to the owners of the non-surviving entity in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving entity, the amount of consideration therefor will be deemed to be the fair value of such portion of the net assets and business of the non-surviving entity as is attributable to such shares of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents, as the case may be.

If any holder of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents outstanding on the Original Issue Date or issued thereafter shall at any time, whether by operation of purchase price adjustments, reset provisions, floating conversion, exercise or exchange prices or otherwise, or due to warrants, options or rights per share which are issued in connection with such issuance, be entitled to receive shares of Common Stock at an effective price per share that is lower than the Conversion Price then in effect, such issuance shall be deemed to have occurred for less than the Conversion Price on such date and such issuance shall be deemed to be a Dilutive Issuance.

The Company shall notify the Holder in writing, no later than the Business Day following the issuance of any Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents subject to this Section 5(b), indicating therein the applicable issuance price, or applicable reset price, exchange price, conversion price and other pricing terms (such notice, the “Dilutive Issuance Notice”). For purposes of clarification, whether or not the Company provides a Dilutive Issuance Notice pursuant to this Section 5(b), upon the occurrence of any Dilutive Issuance, the Holder is entitled to receive a number of Conversion Shares based upon the Base Conversion Price on or after the date of such Dilutive Issuance, regardless of whether the Holder accurately refers to the Base Conversion Price in the Conversion Notice.

The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall apply each time a Dilutive Issuance occurs after the Original Issue Date for so long as the Note or any amounts accrued and payable thereunder remain outstanding, but any adjustment of the Conversion Price pursuant to this Section 5(b) shall be downward only.

Notwithstanding all of the foregoing in this Section 5(b), no adjustment will be made under this Section 5(b) in respect of an Exempt Issuance.

(c) Subsequent Rights Offerings. In addition to any adjustments pursuant to Section 5(a) above, if at any time the Company grants, issues or sells any Common Stock, Common Stock Equivalents or rights to purchase stock, warrants, securities or other property pro rata to the record holders of any class of shares of Common Stock (the “Purchase Rights”), then the Holder will be entitled to acquire, upon the terms applicable to such Purchase Rights, the aggregate Purchase Rights which the Holder could have acquired if the Holder had held the number of shares of Common Stock acquirable upon complete conversion of this Note (without regard to any limitations on conversion hereof, including without limitation, the Beneficial Ownership Limitation) immediately before the date on which a record is taken for the grant, issuance or sale of such Purchase Rights, or, if no such record is taken, the date as of which the record holders of shares of Common Stock are to be determined for the grant, issue or sale of such Purchase Rights (provided, however, to the extent that the Holder’s right to participate in any such Purchase Right would result in the Holder exceeding the Beneficial Ownership Limitation, then the Holder shall not be entitled to participate in such Purchase Right to such extent (or beneficial ownership of such shares of Common Stock as a result of such Purchase Right to such extent) and such Purchase Right to such extent shall be held in abeyance for the Holder until such time, if ever, as its right thereto would not result in the Holder exceeding the Beneficial Ownership Limitation).

(d) Pro Rata Distributions. During such time as this Note is outstanding, if the Company shall declare or make any dividend or other distribution of its assets or rights or warrants to acquire its assets, or subscribe for or purchase any security other than Common Stock, to holders of shares of Common Stock, by way of return of capital or otherwise (including, without limitation, any distribution of cash, stock or other securities, property or options by way of a dividend, spin off, reclassification, corporate rearrangement, scheme of arrangement or other similar transaction) (a “Distribution”), at any time after the issuance of this Note, then, in each such case, the Holder shall be entitled to participate in such Distribution to the same extent that the Holder would have participated therein if the Holder had held the number of shares of Common Stock acquirable upon complete conversion of this Note (without regard to any limitations on exercise hereof, including without limitation, the Beneficial Ownership Limitation) immediately before the date of which a record is taken for such Distribution, or, if no such record is taken, the date as of which the record holders of shares of Common Stock are to be determined for the participation in such Distribution (provided, however, to the extent that the Holder’s right to participate in any such Distribution would result in the Holder exceeding the Beneficial Ownership Limitation with respect to the Company or any other publicly-traded corporation subject to Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, then the Holder shall not be entitled to participate in such Distribution to such extent (or in the beneficial ownership of any shares of common stock as a result of such Distribution to such extent) and the portion of such Distribution shall be held in abeyance for the benefit of the Holder until such time, if ever, as its right thereto would not result in the Holder exceeding the Beneficial Ownership Limitation with respect to the Company or any other publicly-traded corporation subject to Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act).

(e) Fundamental Transaction. If, at any time while this Note is outstanding, (i) the Company, directly or indirectly, in one or more related transactions effects any merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another Person, (ii) the Company, directly or indirectly, effects any sale, lease, license, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all of its assets in one or a series of related transactions, (iii) any, direct or indirect, purchase offer, tender offer or exchange offer (whether by the Company or another Person) is completed pursuant to which holders of Common Stock are permitted to sell, tender or exchange their shares for other securities, cash or property and has been accepted by the holders of 50% or more of the outstanding Common Stock, (iv) the Company, directly or indirectly, in one or more related transactions effects any reclassification, reorganization or recapitalization of the Common Stock or any compulsory share exchange pursuant to which the Common Stock is effectively converted into or exchanged for other securities, cash or property, (v) the Company, directly or indirectly, in one or more related transactions consummates a stock or share purchase agreement or other business combination (including, without limitation, a reorganization, recapitalization, spin-off or scheme of arrangement) with another Person whereby such other Person acquires more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (not including any shares of Common Stock held by the other Person or other Persons making or party to, or associated or affiliated with the other Persons making or party to, such stock or share purchase agreement or other business combination) (each a “Fundamental Transaction”), then, upon any subsequent conversion of this Note, the Holder shall have the right to receive, for each Conversion Share that would have been issuable upon such conversion immediately prior to the occurrence of such Fundamental Transaction (without regard to any limitation on the conversion of this Note), the number of shares of Common Stock of the successor or acquiring corporation or of the Company, if it is the surviving corporation, and any additional consideration (the "Alternate Consideration") receivable as a result of such Fundamental Transaction by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock for which this Note is convertible immediately prior to such Fundamental Transaction (without regard to any limitation on the conversion of this Note). For purposes of any such conversion, the determination of the Conversion Price shall be appropriately adjusted to apply to such Alternate Consideration based on the amount of Alternate Consideration issuable in respect of one (1) share of Common Stock in such Fundamental Transaction, and the Company shall apportion the Conversion Price among the Alternate Consideration in a reasonable manner reflecting the relative value of any different components of the Alternate Consideration. If holders of Common Stock are given any choice as to the securities, cash or property to be received in a Fundamental Transaction, then the Holder shall be given the same choice as to the Alternate Consideration it receives upon any conversion of this Note following such Fundamental Transaction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event of a Fundamental Transaction that is (1) an all cash transaction, (2) a "Rule 13e-3 transaction" as defined in Rule 13e-3 under the Exchange Act, or (3) a Fundamental Transaction involving a person or entity not traded on a national securities exchange or trading market (with such exchange or market including, without limitation, the Nasdaq Global Select Trading Market, the Nasdaq Global Market, or the Nasdaq Capital Market, The New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the NYSE American, LLC or the OTCQB), the Company or any Successor Entity shall, at the Holder's option, exercisable concurrently with the consummation of the Fundamental Transaction, purchase this Note from the Holder by paying to the Holder the higher of (i) an amount of cash equal to the Black Scholes Value of the outstanding principal of this Note, accrued interest on this Note and all other amounts due and payable under this Note, on the date of the consummation of such Fundamental Transaction, or (ii) the product of (a) the number of Conversion Shares issuable upon full conversion of this Note (without regard to any limitation on conversion of this Note) and (b) the positive difference between the cash per share paid in such Fundamental Transaction minus the then in effect Conversion Price. The Company shall cause any successor entity in a Fundamental Transaction in which the Company is not the survivor (the "Successor Entity") to assume in writing all of the obligations of the Company under this Note and the other Transaction Documents (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5(e) pursuant to written agreements in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Holder and approved by the Holder (without unreasonable delay) prior to such Fundamental Transaction and shall, at the option of the holder of this Note, deliver to the Holder in exchange for this Note a security of the Successor Entity evidenced by a written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Note which is convertible for a corresponding number of shares of capital stock of such Successor Entity (or its parent entity) equivalent to the shares of Common Stock acquirable and receivable upon conversion of this Note (without regard to any limitations on the conversion of this Note) prior to such Fundamental Transaction, and with a conversion price which applies the Conversion Price hereunder to such shares of capital stock (but taking into account the relative value of the shares of Common Stock pursuant to such Fundamental Transaction and the value of such shares of capital stock, such number of shares of capital stock and such conversion price being for the purpose of protecting the economic value of this Note immediately prior to the consummation of such Fundamental Transaction), and which is reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to the Holder. Upon the occurrence of any such Fundamental Transaction, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and be substituted for (so that from and after the date of such Fundamental Transaction, the provisions of this Note and the other Transaction Documents referring to the "Company" shall refer instead to the Successor Entity), and may exercise every right and power of the Company and shall assume all of the obligations of the Company under this Note and the other Transaction Documents with the same effect as if such Successor Entity had been named as the Company herein. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5(e), an Exempt Issuance shall not be deemed a Fundamental Transaction.

(f) Calculations. All calculations under this Section 5 shall be made to the nearest cent or the nearest 1/100th of a share, as the case may be. For purposes of this Section 5, the number of shares of Common Stock deemed to be issued and outstanding as of a given date shall be the sum of the number of shares of Common Stock (excluding any treasury shares of the Company) issued and outstanding.

(g) Notice to the Holder.

(i) Adjustment to Conversion Price. Whenever the Conversion Price is adjusted pursuant to any provision of this Section 5, the Company shall promptly deliver to each Holder a notice setting forth the Conversion Price after such adjustment and setting forth a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment.

(ii) Notice to Allow Conversion by Holder. If (A) the Company shall declare a dividend (or any other distribution in whatever form) on the Common Stock, (B) the Company shall declare a special nonrecurring cash dividend on or a redemption of the Common Stock, (C) the Company shall authorize the granting to all holders of the Common Stock of rights or warrants to subscribe for or purchase any shares of capital stock of any class or of any rights, (D) the approval of any shareholders of the Company shall be required in connection with any reclassification of the Common Stock, any consolidation or merger to which the Company is a party, any sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, or any compulsory share exchange whereby the Common Stock is converted into other securities, cash or property or (E) the Company shall authorize the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Company, then, in each case, the Company shall cause to be filed at each office or agency maintained for the purpose of conversion of this Note, and shall cause to be delivered to the Holder at its last address as it shall appear upon the Note Register, at least 20 calendar days prior to the applicable record or effective date hereinafter specified, a notice stating (x) the date on which a record is to be taken for the purpose of such dividend, distribution, redemption, rights or warrants, or if a record is not to be taken, the date as of which the holders of the Common Stock of record to be entitled to such dividend, distributions, redemption, rights or warrants are to be determined or (y) the date on which such reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, transfer or share exchange is expected to become effective or close, and the date as of which it is expected that holders of the Common Stock of record shall be entitled to exchange their shares of the Common Stock for securities, cash or other property deliverable upon such reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, transfer or share exchange, provided that the failure to deliver such notice or any defect therein or in the delivery thereof shall not affect the validity of the corporate action required to be specified in such notice. To the extent that any notice provided hereunder constitutes, or contains, material, non-public information regarding the Company or any of the Subsidiaries (as determined in good faith by the Company), the Company or its successor shall simultaneously file such notice with the SEC pursuant to a Current Report on Form 8-K. The Holder shall remain entitled to convert this Note during the 20-day period commencing on the date of such notice through the effective date of the event triggering such notice except as may otherwise be expressly set forth herein.

Section 6. Negative Covenants. As long as any portion of this Note remains outstanding, unless the holders of 100% in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes shall have otherwise given prior written consent, the Company shall not, and shall not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly:

- (a) amend its charter documents, including, without limitation, its articles of incorporation and bylaws, in any manner that materially and adversely affects any rights of the Holder (provided, however, the consent of the Holder shall not be required in connection with the first clause of the first sentence of Section 4(d)(vi) above);
- (b) repay, repurchase or offer to repay, repurchase or otherwise acquire more than a de minimis number of shares of its Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents other than: (a) as to the Conversion Shares as permitted or required under the Transaction Documents, or (b) in connection with the repurchasing of certain existing shareholders' equity;
- (c) repay, repurchase or offer to repay, repurchase or otherwise acquire any Indebtedness other than Permitted Indebtedness or the Notes if on a pro-rata basis, other than regularly scheduled principal and interest payments as such terms are in effect as of the Original Issue Date, provided that such payments shall not be permitted if, at such time, or after giving effect to such payment, any Event of Default shall exist or occur;
- (d) pay cash dividends or distributions on any equity securities of the Company;
- (e) enter into any transaction with any Affiliate of the Company which would be required to be disclosed in any public filing with the SEC assuming that the Company is subject to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, unless such transaction is made on an arm's-length basis and expressly approved by a majority of the disinterested directors of the Company (even if less than a quorum otherwise required for board approval); or
- (f) enter into any agreement with respect to any of the foregoing.

Section 7. Events of Default.

(a) "Event of Default" means, wherever used herein, any of the following events (whatever the reason for such event and whether such event shall be voluntary or involuntary or effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court, or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body):

- (i) any default in the payment of (A) the principal amount of any Note or (B) interest, late fees, liquidated damages and other amounts owing to a Holder on any Note, as and when the same shall become due and payable (whether on a Conversion Date or the Maturity Date or by acceleration or otherwise);
- (ii) the Company shall fail to observe or perform any other covenant or agreement contained in the Notes (other than a breach by the Company of its obligations to deliver shares of Common Stock to the Holder upon conversion, which breach is addressed in clause (xi) below or any Transaction Document which failure is not cured, if possible to cure, within the earlier to occur of (A) five Business Days after notice of such failure sent by the Holder or by any other Holder to the Company and (B) 10 Business Days after the Company has become aware of such failure, unless a longer cure period exists in an applicable agreement in which such longer cure period shall apply);
- (iii) a default or event of default (subject to any grace or cure period provided in the applicable agreement, document or instrument) shall occur under (A) any of the Transaction Documents or (B) any other material agreement, lease, document or instrument to which the Company or any Subsidiary is obligated (and not covered by clause (vi) below);
- (iv) any representation or warranty made in this Note, any other Transaction Document, any written statement pursuant hereto or thereto or any other report, financial statement or certificate made or delivered to the Holder or any other Holder shall be untrue or incorrect in any material respect as of the date when made or deemed made;
- (v) the Company or any Significant Subsidiary (as such term is defined in Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X) shall be subject to a Bankruptcy Event;
- (vi) the Company or any Subsidiary shall default on any of its obligations under any mortgage, credit agreement or other facility, indenture agreement, factoring agreement or other instrument under which there may be issued, or by which there may be secured or evidenced, any indebtedness for borrowed money or money due under any long term leasing or factoring arrangement that (a) involves an obligation greater than $125,000, whether such indebtedness now exists or shall hereafter be created, and (b) results in such indebtedness becoming or being declared due and payable prior to the date on which it would otherwise become due and payable and such default is not cured within five Business Days;
- (vii) the Common Stock shall not be eligible for listing or quotation for trading on any Trading Market and shall not be eligible to resume listing or quotation for trading thereon within five Business Days unless a Force Majeure event has occurred;
- (viii) the Company shall be a party to any Change of Control Transaction or shall agree to sell or dispose of all or in excess of

50% of its assets in one transaction or a series of related transactions (whether or not such sale would constitute a Change of Control Transaction);

(ix) the Company shall provide at any time notice to the Holder, including by way of public announcement, of the Company's intention to not honor requests for conversions of any Notes in accordance with the terms hereof; or

(x) any monetary judgment, writ or similar final process shall be entered or filed against the Company, any Subsidiary or any of their respective property or other assets for more than $125,000, and such judgment, writ or similar final process shall remain unvacated, unbonded or unstayed for a period of 10 calendar days.

(b) Remedies Upon Event of Default. If any Event of Default occurs and is not cured within 10 days after the giving of written notice, the outstanding principal amount of this Note, plus accrued but unpaid interest, liquidated damages and other amounts owing in respect thereof through the date of acceleration, shall become, at the Holder's election, immediately due and payable in cash at the Mandatory Default Amount. Upon the payment in full of the Mandatory Default Amount, the Holder shall promptly surrender this Note to or as directed by the Company. In connection with such acceleration described herein, the Holder need not provide, and the Company hereby waives, any presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, and the Holder may immediately and without expiration of any grace period enforce any and all of its rights and remedies hereunder and all other remedies available to it under applicable law. Such acceleration may be rescinded and annulled by Holder at any time prior to payment hereunder and the Holder shall have all rights as a holder of the Note until such time, if any, as the Holder receives full payment pursuant to this Section 7(b). No such rescission or annulment shall affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

(c) Interest Rate Upon Event of Default. Commencing on the occurrence of any Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured, this Note shall accrue interest at an interest rate equal to the Default Interest Rate.

(d) Conversion Price Upon Event of Default. Commencing on the occurrence of any Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured, this Note shall be convertible at the Default Conversion Price.

Section 8. Miscellaneous.

If this Note shall be mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Company shall execute and deliver, in exchange and substitution for and upon cancellation of a mutilated Note, or in lieu of or in substitution for a lost, stolen or destroyed Note, a new Note for the principal amount of this Note so mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, but only upon receipt of evidence of such loss, theft or destruction of such Note, and of the ownership hereof, reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

(e) Exclusive Jurisdiction; Governing Law. All questions concerning the construction, validity, enforcement and interpretation of this Note shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with Section 10 of the Purchase Agreement. Each party agrees that all legal proceedings concerning the interpretation, enforcement and defense of the transactions contemplated by any of the Transaction Documents (whether brought against a party hereto or its respective Affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, employees or agents) shall only be commenced in the state and federal courts specified in Section 5.8 of the Purchase Agreement. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts set forth in Section 5.8 of the Purchase Agreement for the adjudication of any dispute hereunder or in connection herewith or with any transaction contemplated hereby or discussed herein (including with respect to the enforcement of any of the Transaction Documents), and hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert in any suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts are improper or inconvenient venue for such proceeding. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit in any way any right to serve process in any other manner permitted by applicable law. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all right to trial by jury in any legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Note or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(f) Waiver. Any waiver by the Company or the Holder of a breach of any provision of this Note shall not operate as or be construed to be a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision of this Note. The failure of the Company or the Holder to insist upon strict adherence to any term of this Note on one or more occasions shall not be considered a waiver or deprive that party of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or any other term of this Note on any other occasion. Any waiver by the Company or the Holder must be in writing.

(g) Severability. If any provision of this Note is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the balance of this Note shall remain in effect, and if any provision is inapplicable to any Person or circumstance, it shall nevertheless remain applicable to all other Persons and circumstances. If it shall be found that any interest or other amount deemed interest due hereunder violates the applicable law governing usury, the applicable rate of interest due hereunder shall automatically be lowered to equal the maximum rate of interest permitted under applicable law. The Company covenants (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it shall not at any time insist upon, plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay, extension or usury law or other law which would prohibit or forgive the Company from paying all or any portion of the principal of or interest on this Note as contemplated herein, wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, or which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Note, and the Company (to the extent it may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefits or advantage of any such law, and covenants that it will not, by resort to any such law, hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Holder, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such as though no such law has been enacted.

(h) Remedies, Characterizations, Other Obligations, Breaches and Injunctive Relief. The remedies provided in this Note shall be cumulative and in addition to all other remedies available under this Note and any of the other Transaction Documents at law or in equity (including a decree of specific performance and/or other injunctive relief), and nothing herein shall limit the Holder's right to pursue actual and consequential damages for any failure by the Company to comply with the terms of this Note. The Company covenants to the Holder that there shall be no characterization concerning this instrument other than as expressly provided herein. Amounts set forth or provided for herein with respect to payments, conversion and the like (and the computation thereof) shall be the amounts to be received by the Holder and shall not, except as expressly provided herein, be subject to any other obligation of the Company (or the performance thereof). The Company acknowledges that a breach by it of its obligations hereunder will cause irreparable harm to the Holder and that the remedy at law for any such breach would be inadequate. The Company therefore agrees that, in the event of any such breach or threatened breach, the Holder shall be entitled, in addition to all other available remedies, to an injunction restraining any such breach or any such threatened breach, without the necessity of showing economic loss and without any bond or other security being required. The Company shall provide all information and documentation to the Holder that is requested by the Holder to enable the Holder to confirm the Company's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Note.

(i) Next Business Day. Whenever any payment or other obligation hereunder shall be due on a day other than a Business Day, such payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day.

PURSUANT TO SECTION 3682 OF THE
PUERTO RICO GENERAL CORPORATIONS ACT OF 2009, AS AMENDED

The undersigned, Chief Executive Officer of Unusual Machines, Inc. a Puerto Rico corporation (the “Corporation”), DOES HEREBY CERTIFY that the following resolutions were duly adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation by unanimous written consent on _____, 2023.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors is authorized within the limitations and restrictions stated in the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation to provide by resolution or resolutions for the issuance of ___ shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Corporation, in such series and with such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions as the Corporation’s Board of Directors shall fix by resolution or resolutions providing for the issuance thereof duly adopted by the Board of Directors; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Board of Directors, pursuant to its authority as aforesaid, to authorize and fix the terms of a series of Preferred Stock and the number of shares constituting such series;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

Section 1. Designation and Authorized Shares. The Corporation shall be authorized to issue one million fifty thousand (1,050,000) shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the “Series A Preferred Stock”).

Section 2. Stated Value. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall have a stated value of $10.00 per share (the “Stated Value”).

Section 3. Liquidation.

(a) Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the business of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, each holder of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, for each share thereof, out of assets of the Corporation legally available therefor, a preferential amount in cash equal to (and not more than) the Stated Value. All preferential amounts to be paid to the holders of Series A Preferred Stock in connection with such liquidation, dissolution or winding up shall be paid before the payment or setting apart for payment of any amount for, or the distribution of any assets of the Corporation to the holders of (i) any other class or series of capital stock whose terms expressly provide that the holders of Series A Preferred Stock should receive preferential payment with respect to such distribution (to the extent of such preference) and (ii) the Corporation's Common Stock. If upon any such distribution the assets of the Corporation shall be insufficient to pay the holders of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock (or the holders of any class or series of capital stock ranking on a parity with the Series A Preferred Stock as to distributions in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation) the full amounts to which they shall be entitled, such holders shall share ratably in any distribution of assets in accordance with the sums which would be payable on such distribution if all sums payable thereon were paid in full.

(b) Any distribution in connection with the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, or any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding, shall be made in cash to the extent possible. Whenever any such distribution shall be paid in property other than cash, the value of such distribution shall be the fair market value of such property as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 4. Voting and Dividends.

(a) Voting. Except as otherwise expressly required by law, each holder of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters submitted to shareholders of the Corporation and shall be entitled to the number of votes for each share of Series A Preferred Stock owned at the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on such matter or, if no such record date is established, at the date such vote is taken or any written consent of shareholders is solicited, equal to the number of shares of Common Stock such shares of Series A Preferred Stock are convertible into at such time. Except as otherwise required by law, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall vote together with the holders of Common Stock on all matters and shall not vote as a separate class.

(b) Dividends. The holders of Series A Preferred Stock will be entitled to dividends, if and when declared and paid, on an as-converted basis with the Common Stock.

Section 5. Conversion.

(a) Conversion Right. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock may, from time to time, be converted into shares of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock (the “Conversion Shares”) at a rate determined by dividing the Stated Value by the Conversion Price. The “Conversion Price” will be equal to $_____ per share, subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 8.

(b) Conversion Procedure. In order to exercise the conversion privilege under Section 5, the holder of any shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted shall give written notice to the Corporation at its principal office that such holder elects to convert such shares of Series A Preferred Stock or a specified portion thereof into shares of Common Stock as set forth in such notice. At such time as the certificate or certificates representing the Series A Preferred Stock which has been converted are surrendered to the Corporation, the Corporation shall issue and deliver a certificate or certificates representing the number of shares of Common Stock determined pursuant to Section 5. In case of conversion under Section 5 of only a part of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock represented by a certificate surrendered to the Corporation, the Corporation shall issue and deliver a new certificate for the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock which have not been converted. Until such time as the certificate or certificates representing Series A Preferred Stock which has been converted are surrendered to the Corporation and a certificate or certificates representing the Common Stock into which such Series A Preferred Stock has been converted have been issued and delivered, the certificate or certificates representing the Series A Preferred Stock which have been converted shall represent the shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock have been converted. The Corporation shall pay all documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax due on the issue of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock.

(c) Maximum Conversion. (i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Certificate of Designation, at no time may all or a portion of the Series A Preferred Stock be converted if the number of shares of Common Stock to be issued pursuant to such conversion would exceed, when aggregated with all other shares of Common Stock owned by the holder at such time, the number of shares of Common Stock which would result in the holder beneficially owning (as determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and the rules thereunder) more than 4.99% of all of the Common Stock outstanding at such time; provided, however, that upon the holder providing the Corporation with sixty-one (61) days' advance notice (the "4.99% Waiver Notice") that the holder would like to waive this Section 5(c)(i) with regard to any or all shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, this Section 5(c)(i) will be of no force or effect with regard to all or a portion of the Series A Preferred Stock referenced in the 4.99% Waiver Notice.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Certificate of Designation, at no time may all or a portion of the Series A Preferred Stock be converted if the number of shares of Common Stock to be issued pursuant to such conversion, when aggregated with all other shares of Common Stock owned by the holder at such time, would result in the holder beneficially owning (as determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder) in excess of 9.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock outstanding at such time; provided, however, that upon the holder providing the Corporation with sixty-one (61) days' advance notice (the "9.99% Waiver Notice") that the holder would like to waive this Section 5(c)(ii) with regard to any or all shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, this Section 5(c)(ii) will be of no force or effect with regard to all or a portion of the Series A Preferred Stock referenced in the 9.99% Waiver Notice.

Section 6. Other Provisions.

(a) Reservation of Common Stock. The Corporation shall at all times reserve from its authorized Common Stock a sufficient number of shares to provide for conversion of all Series A Preferred Stock from time to time outstanding.

(b) Record Holders. The Corporation and its transfer agent, if any, for the Series A Preferred Stock may deem and treat the record holder of any shares of Series A Preferred Stock as reflected on the books and records of the Corporation as the sole true and lawful owner thereof for all purposes, and neither the Corporation nor any such transfer agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

Section 7. Restriction and Limitations. Except as expressly provided herein or as required by law so long as any shares of Series A Preferred Stock remain outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without the vote or written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred Stock, take any action which would adversely and materially affect any of the preferences, limitations or relative rights of the Series A Preferred Stock.

Section 8. Certain Adjustments.

(a) Stock Dividends and Stock Splits. If the Corporation, at any time while the Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding: (A) shall pay a stock dividend or otherwise make a distribution or distributions on shares of its Common Stock or any other equity or equity equivalent securities payable in shares of Common Stock (which, for avoidance of doubt, shall not include any shares of Common Stock issued by the Corporation pursuant to the Series A Preferred Stock), (B) subdivide outstanding shares of Common Stock into a larger number of shares, (C) combine (including by way of reverse stock split) outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, or (D) issue by reclassification of shares of the Common Stock any shares of capital stock of the Corporation, each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall receive such consideration as if such number of shares of Series A Preferred had been, immediately prior to such foregoing dividend, distribution, subdivision, combination or reclassification, the holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which it could convert at such time. Any adjustment made pursuant to this Section shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such dividend or distribution and shall become effective immediately after the effective date in the case of a subdivision, combination or re-classification.

(b) Fundamental Transaction. If, at any time while the Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, (A) the Corporation effects any merger or consolidation of the Corporation with or into another Person, (B) the Corporation effects any sale of all or substantially all of its assets in one transaction or a series of related transactions, (C) any tender offer or exchange offer (whether by the Corporation or another Person) is completed pursuant to which holders of Common Stock are permitted to tender or exchange their shares for other securities, cash or property, or (D) the Corporation effects any reclassification of the Common Stock or any compulsory share exchange pursuant to which the Common Stock is effectively converted into or exchanged for other securities, cash or property (in any such case, a "Fundamental Transaction"), then, upon any subsequent conversion of this Series A Preferred Stock, the holders shall have the right to receive, for each share of Common Stock that would have been issuable upon such conversion immediately prior to the occurrence of such Fundamental Transaction, the same kind and amount of securities, cash or property as it would have been entitled to receive upon the occurrence of such Fundamental Transaction if it had been, immediately prior to such Fundamental Transaction, the holder of such shares of Common Stock.

(c) Subsequent Equity Sales. If, at any time while the Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, other than in connection with any Exempt Issuance (as defined below), in the event that the Corporation sells or enters into an agreement to sell Common Stock (including any securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock) for consideration lower than the Conversion Price then in effect (or sells or enters into an agreement to sell securities convertible or exercisable into common stock at a conversion or exercise lower than the Conversion Price then in effect), then the Conversion Price will be reduced to such lower price. "Exempt Issuance" means (i) shares of Common Stock, restricted stock units or options to purchase Common Stock issued to directors, officers, employees, or consultants of the Corporation for services rendered to the Corporation in their capacity as such pursuant to an Equity Incentive Plan or similar plan approved by the stockholders of the Corporation issued at fair market value, (ii) shares of Common Stock issued upon the conversion or exercise of convertible securities (other than standard options to purchase Common Stock issued pursuant to an Equity Incentive Plan that are covered by clause (i) above) which are outstanding as of the date of issuance of the Series A Preferred Stock, (iii) the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock or pursuant to the terms of this Certificate of Designation (other than anti-dilution adjustments pursuant to the terms thereof in effect as of the date of execution) and adjustments to the conversion price under that certain Senior Secured Convertible Note issued to the holder of Series A Preferred Stock on the date hereof, (iv) securities issued to any placement agent or other registered broker-dealers as reasonable commissions or fees in connection with any financing transactions which must be (A) at least 120% above the price of the common stock or conversion price of the common stock equivalent sold in the financing transaction (and if there is a unit of different securities sold the lowest price of the common stock or the conversion price used in the financing transaction), or (B) such lower or higher price which is approved by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority as reasonable compensation, (v) securities issued pursuant to a merger, acquisition or similar transaction; provided that (A) the primary purpose of such issuance is not to raise capital, (B) the purchaser or acquirer of such securities in such issuance solely consists of either (1) the actual participants in such transactions, (2) the actual owners of such assets or securities acquired in such merger, acquisition or similar transaction, (3) the shareholders, partners or members of the foregoing persons and (4) persons whose primary business does not consist of investing in securities, and (C) the number or amount (as the case may be) of such shares of Common Stock issued to such person by the Corporation shall not be disproportionate to such person's actual ownership of such assets or securities to be acquired by the Corporation (as applicable), or (vi) a strategic transaction approved by a majority of the disinterested directors of the Corporation, provided that (A) any such issuance shall only be to a person which is, itself or through its subsidiaries, an operating Corporation in a business synergistic with the business of the Corporation and in which the Corporation receives benefits in addition to the investment of funds, (B) the primary purpose of such issuance is not to raise capital, (C) the purchaser or acquirer of such securities in such issuance solely consists of either (1) the actual participants in such strategic transactions, (2) the actual owners of such strategic assets or securities acquired, and (3) the shareholders, partners or members of the foregoing persons, and (D) the number or amount (as the case may be) of such shares of Common Stock issued to such person by the Corporation shall not be disproportionate to such person's actual participation in such strategic licensing or development transactions or ownership of such strategic assets or securities to be acquired by the Corporation (as applicable).

(d) The Company shall not be obligated to effect any registration pursuant to this Section 2 within 90 days after the effective date of any underwritten public offering by the Company or of any previous registration withdrawn at the request of the Investor. The Company may postpone for up to 90 days the filing or the effectiveness of a registration statement for a registration pursuant to this Section 2 if the financial advisor and/or underwriter to the Company certifies to the Investor of the Registrable Securities that such registration would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company; provided, however, that in such event the Investor of Registrable

Securities requesting such registration shall be entitled to withdraw such request and, if such request is withdrawn, such registration shall not count as the one permitted registration under this Section 2 and the Company shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with such postponed or withdrawn registration.

2.2 Piggyback Registration.

(a) Each time the Company proposes for any reason to register any of its Common Stock under the Securities Act in connection with the proposed offer and sale of its Common Stock for money, either for its own account or on behalf of any other security holder (“Proposed Registration”), other than pursuant to a registration statement on Excluded Forms, the Company shall promptly give written notice of such Proposed Registration to the Investor and shall offer the Investor the right to request inclusion of its Registrable Securities, as the case may be, in the Proposed Registration.

(b) The Investor shall have 10 days from the receipt of such notice to deliver to the Company a written request specifying the number of Registrable Securities that the Investor intends to sell in the Proposed Registration and the Investor's intended method of disposition.

(c) In the event that the Proposed Registration by the Company or any selling shareholder (or shareholders), as the case may be, is, in whole or in part, an underwritten public offering, the Company shall so advise the Investor as part of the written notice given pursuant to Section 2.2(a), and any request under Section 2.2 (b) must specify that the Investor’s Registrable Securities be included in the underwriting on the same terms and conditions as the shares of Common Stock, if any, otherwise being sold through underwriters under such registration.

(d) Upon receipt of a written request pursuant to Section 2.2(b), the Company shall promptly use its best efforts to cause all such Registrable Securities held by the Investor to be registered under the Securities Act (and included in any related qualifications under blue sky laws), to the extent required to permit sale or disposition as set forth in the Proposed Registration.

(e) In the event that the offering is to be an underwritten offering, if the Investor proposes to distribute its Registrable Securities through such underwritten offering, then the Investor agrees to enter into an underwriting agreement with the underwriter or underwriters selected for such underwriting by the Company or any selling shareholder (or shareholders), as the case may be.

2.3 Form S-3. Whenever the Company is eligible to use Form S-3, it shall use that Form rather than Form S-1.

3 . OBLIGATIONS OF THE COMPANY. If and whenever the Company is required by the provisions hereof to effect or cause the registration of any Registrable Securities under the Securities Act as provided herein, the Company shall:

(a) use its best efforts to prepare and file with the Commission a registration statement with respect to such Registrable Securities and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become and remain effective;

(b) use its best efforts to prepare and file with the Commission such amendments to such registration statement (including post-effective amendments) and supplements to the prospectus included therein as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective, subject to the qualifications in Section 4(a), and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the sale or other disposition of all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement during such period in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the Investor set forth in such registration statement;

(c) furnish to the Investor such number of copies of such registration statement and of each such amendment and supplement thereto (in each case including all exhibits), such number of copies of the prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus), in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act, and such other documents, as each Investor may reasonably request, in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by the Investor;

(d) use its best efforts to make such filings under the securities or blue sky laws reasonably requested by the Investor (or New York if the Company’s Common Stock is not listed on the Nasdaq Stock market or the New York Stock Exchange or NYSE American) to enable the Investor to consummate the sale in such jurisdiction of the Registrable Securities owned by the Investor;

(e) notify the Investor at any time when a prospectus relating to their Registrable Securities is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the Company’s becoming aware that the prospectus included in the related registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances then existing, and promptly prepare and furnish to the Investor a reasonable number of copies of a prospectus supplemented or amended so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing;

(f) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission;

(g) to use its best efforts to cause Registrable Securities to be quoted on each trading market and/or in each quotation service on which the Common Stock of the Company is then quoted; and

(h) notify the Investor of any stop order threatened or issued by the Commission and take all actions reasonably necessary to prevent the entry of such stop order or to remove it if entered.

4. Other Procedures.

(a) Subject to the remaining provisions of this Section 4(a) and the Company's general obligation to use best efforts under Section 3, the Company shall be required to maintain the effectiveness of a registration statement (under Form S-1 or Form S-3) until the earlier of (i) the sale of all Registrable Securities or (ii) forty-eight months from the effective date of the registration statement. The Company shall have no liability to the Investor for delays in the Investor being able to sell the Registrable Securities (i) as long as the Company uses its best efforts to file a registration statement, amendments to a registration statement, post-effective amendments to a registration statement or supplements to a prospectus contained in a registration statement (including any amendment or post effective amendments), (ii) where the required financial statements or auditor's consents are unavailable or (iii) where the Company would be required to disclose information at a time when it has no duty to disclose such information under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or the rules and regulations of the Commission. Provided, however, any suspension under clauses (ii) or (iii) shall not exceed 180 days in any 12 month period.

(b) In consideration of the Company's obligations under this Agreement, the Investor agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Company of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 3(e) herein, the Investor shall forthwith discontinue his sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement covering such Registrable Securities until the Investor's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by said Section 3(e) and, if so directed by the Company, shall deliver to the Company (at the Company's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies, then in the Investor's possession of the prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice.

(c) The Company's obligation to file any registration statement or amendment including a post-effective amendment, shall be subject to each Investor, as applicable, furnishing to the Company in writing such information and documents regarding such Investor and the distribution of such Investor's Registrable Securities as may reasonably be required to be disclosed in the registration statement in question by the rules and regulations under the Securities Act or under any other applicable securities or blue sky laws of the jurisdiction referred to in Section 3(d) herein. The Company's obligations are also subject to each Investor promptly executing any representation letter concerning compliance with Regulation M under the Exchange Act (or any successor rule or regulation).

(d) If any such registration or comparable statement refers to the Investor by name or otherwise as a stockholder of the Company, but such reference to the Investor by name or otherwise is not required by the Securities Act or the rules thereunder, then each Investor shall have the right to require the deletion of the reference to the Investor, as may be applicable.

(e) In connection with the sale of Registrable Securities, the Investor shall deliver to each purchaser a copy of the necessary prospectus and, if applicable, prospectus supplement, within the time required by Section 5(b) of the Securities Act.

5. Registration Expenses. In connection with any registration of Registrable Securities pursuant to Section 2, the Company shall, whether or not any such registration shall become effective, from time to time, pay all expenses (other than Selling Expenses) incident to its performance of or compliance, including, without limitation, all registration, and filing fees, fees and expenses of compliance with securities or blue sky laws, word processing, printing and copying expenses, messenger and delivery expenses, fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and all independent public accountants and other Persons retained by the Company.

6. Indemnification.

(a) In the event of any registration of any shares of Common Stock under the Securities Act pursuant to this Agreement, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Investor, from and against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which each Investor may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement under which such Registrable Securities were registered under the Securities Act, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any document incident to registration or qualification of any Registrable Securities pursuant to Section 3(d) herein, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or, with respect to any prospectus, necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or any violation by the Company of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or state securities or blue sky laws applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with such registration or qualification under the Securities Act or such state securities or blue sky laws. If the Company fails to defend the Investor as required by Section 6(c) herein, it shall reimburse (after receipt of appropriate documentation) each Investor for any legal or any other out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that the Company shall not be liable to an Investor in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon (i) an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in said registration statement, said preliminary prospectus, said prospectus, or said amendment or supplement or any document incident to registration or qualification of any Registrable Securities pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by such Investor specifically for use in the preparation thereof or information omitted to be furnished by such Investor or (ii) any act or failure to act of such Investor including the failure of any Investor to deliver a prospectus as required by Section 5(b) of the Securities Act.

(b) In the event of any registration of any Registrable Securities under the Securities Act pursuant to this Agreement, each Investor shall indemnify and hold harmless (in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in Section 6(a)) the Company, each director of the Company, each officer of the Company who signs such registration statement, the Company's attorneys and auditors and any Person who controls the Company within the meaning of the Securities Act, with respect to (i) any untrue statement or omission from such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, if such untrue statement or omission was made solely in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by such Investor specifically for use in the preparation of such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or amendment or supplement or (ii) from any other act or failure to act of the Investor.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any action involving a claim referred to in Section 6(a) or (b), such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is made against an indemnifying party, give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of the commencement of such action. The indemnifying party shall be relieved of its obligations under this Section 6(c) to the extent that the indemnified party delays in giving notice and the indemnifying party is damaged or prejudiced by the delay. In case any such action is brought against an indemnified party, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate in and to assume the defense thereof, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and, after notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so as to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party shall be responsible for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnifying party in connection with the defense thereof, provided, however, that, if counsel for an indemnified party shall have reasonably concluded that there is an actual or potential conflict of interest between the indemnified and the indemnifying party the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action on behalf of such indemnified party, and such indemnifying party shall reimburse such indemnified party and any Person controlling such indemnified party for the fees and expenses of counsel retained by the indemnified party which are reasonably related to the matters covered by the indemnity agreement provided in this Section 6; provided, however, that in no event shall any indemnification by an Investor under this Section 6 exceed the net proceeds from the sale of Registered Securities received by the Investor. No indemnified party shall make any settlement of any claims indemnified against hereunder without the written consent of the indemnifying party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event that any indemnifying party enters into any settlement without the written consent of the indemnified party the indemnifying party shall not, consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff of a release of such indemnified party from all liability in respect to such claim or litigation.

(d) In order to provide for just and equitable contribution to joint liability under the Securities Act in any case in which under any indemnified party makes a claim for indemnification pursuant to this Section 6, but it is judicially determined (by the entry of a final judgment or decree by a court of competent jurisdiction and the expiration of time to appeal or the denial of the last right of appeal) that such indemnification may not be enforced in such case notwithstanding the fact that this Section 6 provides for indemnification in such case, or (ii) contribution under the Securities Act may be required in circumstances for which indemnification is provided under this Section 6; then, in each such case, the Company and such Investor shall contribute to the aggregate losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which they may be subject as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Company and such Investor in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, it being understood that the parties acknowledge that the overriding equitable consideration to be given effect in connection with this provision is the ability of one party or the other to correct the statement or omission (or avoid the conduct or take an act) which resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, and that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant hereto were to be determined by pro-rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take into consideration the foregoing equitable considerations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) no such Investor shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the net proceeds to him of all Registrable Securities sold by him pursuant to such registration statement, and (ii) no Person who is guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who is not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(e) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, if, in connection with an underwritten public offering of the Registrable Securities, the Company, any of the Investor and the underwriters enter into an underwriting agreement relating to such offering which contains provisions covering indemnification among the parties, then the indemnification provision of this Section 6 shall be deemed inoperative for purposes of such offering.

7. Certain Limitations on Registration Rights. At any time prior to the effectiveness of any registration statement filed pursuant to this Agreement, if the Company determines to file a registration statement with the Commission for the public sale of its securities and the managing underwriter of such offering offers to purchase the Registrable Securities for its own account at the same price including underwriting discounts and applicable expenses as paid to the Company, the Investor shall either (i) elect to include their Registrable Securities being registered pursuant to this Agreement in the registration statement covering the sale of the Company's securities, or (ii) immediately cease their public sales for a period of 90 days following the effective date of the registration statement covering the sale by the Company. Additionally, no Investor may participate in the registration statement relating to the sale by the Company of its Common Stock as provided above unless such Investor enters into an underwriting agreement with the managing underwriter and completes and/or executes all questionnaires, indemnities and other reasonable documents requested by the managing underwriter. Each Investor shall be deemed to have agreed by acquisition of its Registrable Securities not to effect any public sale or distribution, including any sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, of any Registrable Securities and to use its best efforts not to effect any such public sale or distribution of any other equity security of the Company (including any short sale) or of any security convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity security of the Company (other than as part of such underwritten public offering) within 10 days before or 90 days after the effective date of such registration statement. In such event, the Investor shall, if requested, sign a customary market stand-off letter with the Company's managing underwriter, and to comply with applicable rules and regulations of the Commission.

8. ALLOCATION OF SECURITIES INCLUDED IN REGISTRATION STATEMENT In the case of a registration pursuant to Section 7 for the Company's account, if the Company's managing underwriter shall advise the Company and the Investor in writing that the inclusion in any registration pursuant hereto of some or all of (a) the Registrable Securities sought to be registered by the Investor and securities offered by other holders, and (b) the Company's securities sought to be registered creates a substantial risk that the proceeds or price per unit that will be derived from such registration will be reduced or that the number of securities to be registered is too large a number to be reasonably sold, (i) first, the number of Company securities sought to be registered shall be included in such registration, and (ii) next, the number of Registrable Securities offered by the Investor and securities offered by other holders shall be included in such registration to the extent permitted by the Company's managing underwriter with the number of Registrable Securities and such other securities being registered determined on a pro-rata basis based on the number of Registered Securities and securities the participating holders including the Investor desire to have registered; provided, however, that, if any participating Investor would be required pursuant to the provisions of this Section 7 to reduce the number of Registrable Securities that he may include in such registration, the Investor may withdraw all or any portion of its Registrable Securities from such registration and may resume selling shares under the registration statement (assuming it is effective) referred to in Section 2.

9. Rule 144. The Company covenants that it will file the reports required to be filed under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the Commission thereunder (or, in the event that the Company is not required to file such reports, it will make publicly available information as set forth in Rule 144(c)(2) promulgated under the Securities Act), and it will take such further action as the Investor may reasonably request, or to the extent required from time to time to enable the Investor to sell their Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemption provided by (a) Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as such Rule may be amended from time to time, or (b) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the Commission (collectively, "Rule 144"), such actions to be at the Company's sole cost and expense, including any legal fees and costs for opinions. Upon request of any Investor, the Company will deliver to the Investor a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements.

11. Severability. In the event any parts of this Agreement are found to be void, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless be binding with the same effect as though the void parts were deleted.

12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The execution of this Agreement may be by actual or facsimile signature.

13. Benefit. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their legal representatives, successors and assigns.
